

The Zoya Factor

The Zoya Factor is an Indian romantic comedy film, directed by Abhishek Sharma, and produced by Pooja and Aarrti Shetty, under the banner of Fox Star Studios. The film, which stars the likes of Sonam Kapoor, Dulquer Salmaan and Sanjay Kapoor, was originally released on September 20, 2019. The plot revolves around a junior copywriter, who deems herself unlucky, with both her love life and professional life falling apart. Soon, however, she finds her life turning around, when she has to shoot an advert with the Indian cricket team, who think of her as their lucky charm.

BLACK-ISH

Black-ish is a comedy series, starring Anthony Anderson, Tracee Ellis Ross and Yara Shahidi, among others. The show, which was created by Kenya Barris, and distributed by Walt Disney Television, surrounds the life of an African-American family, who have to deal with several issues, both personal and social. The sixth season was released on September 24, 2019, on ABC.

IT'S ALWAYS SUNNY IN PHILADELPHIA

It's Always Sunny in Philadelphia is a comedy series, surrounding the lives of five friends in Philadelphia who own an Irish pub. The show was created and developed by Rob McElhenney, distributed by 20th Television, and stars Charlie Day, Glenn Howerton and Rob McElhenney, among others. The fourteenth season was aired on September 25, 2019, on FXX.

SECTION 375

Section 375 is an Indian drama film, starring Akshaye Khanna, Richa Chadda and Meera Chopra, among others. It has been directed by Ajay Bahl, and produced by Kumar Mangat Pathak, Abhishek Pathak and SCIPL. The film follows the trial of a film-maker, who has been accused of rape by a costume designer, and highlights the Section 375 of Indian Penal Code laws. The film was released on September 13, 2019.

Amina Hossain & Shreya Shomoyeeta

