

TAKING BRIBE Dinajpur passport office staffer held

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Anti-Corruption Commission (ACC) yesterday caught an office assistant of regional passport office in Dinajpur while taking bribe from a retired school teacher.

An ACC team led by Assistant Director Ahsanul Kabir Palash, arrested Atikul Islam from his office, confirmed Pranab Kumar Bhattacharya, ACC's Public Relations Officer.

When Atikul demanded Tk 3,000 to receive the passport application, the retired teacher agreed to the demand but also informed ACC to take steps in this regard.

Yesterday noon, while the service seeker was giving bribe to Atikul, ACC arrested him on the spot.

Upon interrogation, Atikul admitted that he accepted Tk 18,000 that were recovered, as bribe from service seekers.

ACC's Deputy Assistant Director Md Saidur Rahman filed a case with ACC's integrated district office in Dinajpur.

Meanwhile, ACC yesterday filed a case against Hilful Fujul chairman Rafikul Islam, its acting chairman Kabir Ahmmad Talukdar and chief executive Nurul Haque Biswas for allegedly misappropriating about Tk 149.17 crore from state-run non-banking financial organisation, Infrastructure Development Company Limited (IDCOL).

ACC Deputy Director Mirza Jahidul Alam filed the case. IDCOL secured loan from donor agencies and gave it to local NGOs at minimum interest rate. In 2006, Hilful Fujul, a local NGO, made a contract with IDCOL for loan to buy solar panels to provide solar power to rural areas.

ACC sources said IDCOL gave Tk 150 crore -- including Tk 16.4 crore as donation -- to Hilful Fujul for buying about 1,36,156 solar home systems. Till September 2014, Hilful Fujul paid only Tk 25.81 crore and misappropriated the due including interest, sources said.

said that despite the gradual rise in rape and other forms of violence against women and children, the preventive measures taken by the authorities concerned are inadequate.

"The incidents are happening one after another, but not a single effective legal measure is to be found," added Rumea, also an assistant director of COAST Trust.

"The way the situation has turned into an epidemic, the coming days will be more unsafe for children if a social resistance isn't formed along with legal steps," she said.

Stressing the need for speedy trial for the violent incidents, Rumea urged law enforcement agencies to accept cases from the victims and arrest the culprits within the shortest possible time.

Momtaz Begum, chairman of Jatiya Mohila Sangstha; Shamima Akhter, chairperson of the National Committee; and Mustafa Kamal Akanda, coordinator of EquityBD, also spoke at the press conference.

On the occasion of the Rural Women's Day, the National Committee will organise various programmes -- including rally, seminar, human chain and fair -- across the country today.

Shacheton Nagorik Committee formed a human chain in front of Ashwini Kumar Town Hall in Barishal city yesterday, demanding exemplary punishment for those who killed Buet student Abrar Fahad. PHOTO: STAR

CCC mechanical department embezzled Tk 2 crore, through discrepancy in disbursement of stones for construction work of a road.

Sudip Bosak denied the allegation and said everything was done in line with CCC rules, but ACC commissioner asked chief executive officer of the city corporation to provide him with a report within one month on the matter.

ACC commissioner AFM Aminul Islam said the government is taking every service to the doorstep of every citizen. "We are working to make sure that there is no barrier in receiving government services. Any corruption -- no matter who commits it -- will be met with in harsh way," he added.

SIX ARRESTED IN RAPE CASE OF TWO MINORS IN KHULNA

Two minors were raped in Digholia upazila of Khulna on Thursday. Police arrested six people in this connection on Sunday.

The arrestees are Iman Mollah, 20; Noor Islam, 22; Ramzan, 23; Habibur Rahman, 21; Mahbubur Rahman Sagar, 22; and Ratul Hassan Rabbi, 21.

The main accused -- Limon, 24, and Bappi, 21 -- are on the run.

Father of one of the minors filed a case with Digholia Police Station on Sunday, accusing nine people.

Manosh Ranjog Gosh, officer-in-charge of Digholia Police Station, told The Daily Star that the incident took place on Thursday around 6pm.

One of the girls went to visit her relative's house in the upazila that day. She was with the other minor involved in the incident, who is her relative, said OC Manosh, quoting family members.

In the evening, Iman Mollah, a local, took the girls to an orchard garden where Limon and Bappi raped them. The other accused helped the rapists, he said.

"After the case was filed, police arrested six of the accused on Sunday night from different places," said OC Manosh.

The arrestees gave confessional statements after they were produced before a court yesterday. They were then sent to jail, the OC added.

The two victims were sent to the One Stop Service Centre of Khulna Medical College Hospital for medical examination yesterday.

Dil Monowara Monu no more

UNB, Dhaka

Senior journalist Dil Monowara Monu passed away at Birdem Hospital in Dhaka early yesterday at 68.

Monu was taken to the hospital with breathing complications. Doctors pronounced her dead shortly after arrival.

Her namaz-e-janaza was held at Jatiya Press Club.

Monu started her career in 1974 at "Begum" magazine, and later served fortnightly "Ananya" for 25 years as executive editor.

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina expressed profound shock at the death.

Special programmes

Chairing the conference, RFB and Palli Karma Sahayak Foundation (PKSF) Chairman Dr Kazi Khaliuzzaman Ahmed stressed on undertaking different programmes considering the people's practical problems.

"Thus, SSNP could serve the interest of ethnic minorities" he added.

MM Akash, a professor of economics at DU, said that extensive research is needed to get precise knowledge about the life of ethnic groups across the country and then proper initiative could be taken.

"Special programmes and budgetary allocation should be increased for them as poverty rate among indigenous people is 60 percent, which is much higher than the national rate," he claimed.

Speaking as chief guest, Gazi Mohammad Nurul Kabir, Director General, Department of Social Services (DSS), said that the government is increasing the number of beneficiaries by expanding social safety net coverage every year.

"The government will consider specific proposals from RFB in this regard," he assured.

Among others, RFB general secretary Mohsin Ali; social protection specialist [deputy secretary] Mohammad Khaled Hasan, and food ministry's deputy secretary Raina Ahmed also spoke at the conference.

UPL and NSU hold translation workshop

CITY DESK

The University Press Limited (UPL) and the Department of English and Modern Languages (DEML) of North South University (NSU) jointly inaugurated a two-month translation workshop at the university's campus on Friday.

Dr M Ismail Hossain, pro-vice chancellor of NSU, inaugurated the workshop, said a press release.

Some 31 participants were selected for the workshop through an application process, according to organisers.

Initiatives like this should be undertaken to decrease the gap between the number of materials available for translation into Bangla and the availability of professional and committed translators, said Mahrukh Mohiuddin, managing director of UPL.

Prof Abdus Selim, professor of Central Women's University; and Dr AQMA Rahman Bhuiyan, chairman of DEML, NSU were also present at the inauguration ceremony, among others.

VC Shireen Akhter said the education minister asked all heads of educational institutions to form the cells. "We are acting as per the direction of the ministry," she said.

Asked about the quality of food at dormitories, she said she was aware of the matter and would take steps to improve the quality of food.
