

New Album from 'Joler Gaan'

The popular folk fusion band Joler Gaan is set to release their new album, Noyon Joler Gaan, on the 27th of October. The new album, which contains twelve songs, also has a song sung by the late singer Bari Siddiqui. This is the band's third album, and it will be available on both YouTube and CDs. The music videos for the songs will also be available on YouTube, and fans can order the album from the band's official Facebook page. The album is being dedicated to Bari Siddiqui.

Nirob's Busy Life

This year, Banglasia 2.0, starring Nirob was released in theatres across Malaysia. The Malaysian censor board approved the film's release after five years, and it has since been released in one hundred and sixteen cinema halls across the country. The movie is also set to be released in Bangladesh soon. It is currently being dubbed in Dhaka. The film has been directed by Malaysian filmmaker Namewee, and Singaporean actor Atikah Suhaimi is starring alongside Nirob. Aside from this, Nirob has agreed to do the film, Boshonto Bikel, the shooting for which will begin very soon.

An Unforgettable Project

Syed Abdul Hadi recently lent his voice to the Fahmida Nabi composed song, Ami Kemon Korey Vuli. The lyrics of the song have been written by Rana Masud, while the musical arrangements were done by Pancham. The song is one of the six folk songs of Standard Chartered - The Daily Star's Celebrating Life 2019 event. When asked about the song, Fahmida Nabi said, "I am glad that I got to do such a great project after a long time. Syed Abdul Hadi sang the song, and even praised my composition. Receiving praise from such a respected and talented individual is truly an achievement for me." Syed Abdul Hadi said, "Nowadays, there is a lack of songs with good lyrics and composition. So, I rarely work on projects. However, I really liked this song, and I hope the audience will enjoy it as well."
