LIAM'S AUSSIE CHAPTER

A new chapter or a beginning to a whirlwind romance? Only time will tell. For now, actor Liam Hemsworth is in lover's paradise as he has been pictured holding hands with and kissing Australian actress Maddison Brown in New York. Brown is currently starring on the Dynasty reboot, in which she plays the role of Kirby Anders. Liam was previously married to singer Miley Cyrus, but within only few months of marriage, the couple called it quits publicly in August. Putting behind his failed marriage, Liam is giving love another chance. We hope he will have a happy ending this time. On the other hand, The Wrecking Ball singer has been seen with Cody Simpson a lot, and she has been calling him her 'bf' in several social media posts.

THE PERFECT FACE

Who says beauty cannot be measured? Based on classic Greek calculations and science, the Golden Ratio of Beauty Phi has recently revealed supermodel Bella Hadid to be the most beautiful woman in the world. Measurements are determined by facial proportions in accordance to the standards that Greek scholars applied while trying to define beauty with scientific formulae. Scientists working on the list have picked the Victoria's Secret model's face as the one that comes closest to perfection as Bella Hadid topped the list with a score of 94.35%. Pop diva Beyoncé, actor Amber Heard and singer Ariana Grande, among others were also in the list. In other news, rumours about Bella reuniting with her ex, The Weeknd, made the headlines. However, the duo didn't let their fans' expectations get high, and said that they continue to be just 'friends' and nothing more. The two had called it quits a few months ago.
