

Wrongdoers beware

Quader warns at Ctg rally

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

The ongoing "cleansing operation" is not just an eyewash, rather action will be taken against wrongdoers irrespective of their political identities, said Awami League General Secretary Obaidul Quader yesterday.

After taking action against perpetrators of own party, the leader [AL President Sheikh Hasina] will focus on others, he said.

Quader, also road transport and bridges minister, was addressing a meeting of six district units of AL in Chattogram division as chief guest.

The programme was organised by Chattogram city and north-south districts, Rangamati, Khagrachhari and Bandarban units of AL at a community centre in port city.

Quader said not only wrongdoers from AL, but also those from BNP were under watch. "No one will be spared," he added.

He urged AL leaders and activists not to abuse power. "Always remember, power is not everlasting... if you abuse it or show arrogance, where will you flee when the party is not in power?" Do not give opportunities to oppositions to raise issues in this regard, he urged party activists.

Quader said the major problem of AL in Chattogram is intraparty rivalry. "At times some untoward situations occur, which is alarming," he said, adding, "Now the unit is more disciplined."

AL joint general secretary Mahbubul Alam Hanif said BNP and Jamaat were criticising the government over the casino issue as they do not have any other allegation. "Some of our party people are also echoing them," he said.

Casinos were not in Jubo League offices, those were found in sports clubs, he said. People from different parties

Boycott food adulterers: minister

UNB, Dhaka

Stressing the need for raising public awareness to prevent food adulteration, Food Minister Sadhan Chandra Majumder yesterday urged all to socially boycott those involved in adulteration.

He was speaking at a seminar on food security, jointly arranged by Consumers Association of Bangladesh, Bij Bistar Foundation and Bangladesh Centre for Advanced Studies at a Dhaka hotel.

Expressing dissatisfaction at his limited scope of work, he said, "I have no work except attending meetings and seminars to raise awareness against food adulteration."

He further said there is no coordination among government agencies working to secure consumer rights.

There is no monitoring in the market to ensure safe food and fair prices, the minister added.

ELIMINATING POVERTY

Empowering locals with leadership skills

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The government and non-government organisations should join hands to eliminate poverty from the country, Planning Minister MA Mannan said yesterday.

He also called for rewarding the persons -- irrespective of their social identity -- who are working tirelessly for the betterment of the country.

Mannan was addressing a discussion over the outcome of an initiative, titled "Strengthening Voluntary Civil Society Leaders for Social Action in Bangladesh", of The Hunger Project -- a non-government organisation.

The discussion was held at The Daily Star Centre in Dhaka.

The project ran for about three years, from November 2016, with the aim to encourage people to assume leadership in their community to solve local socio-economic problems.

The Hunger Project had selected locals on the basis of several categories and then trained them on leadership skills -- over different issues like poverty alleviation and social development.

The project has benefitted about 28,000 people through its 3,946 actions in three years, said Siddique Rubel, project coordinator, The Hunger Project.

The project was implemented in 30 unions of seven districts: Kishoreganj, Tangail, Mymensingh, Meherpur, Kushtia, Chuadanga and Jashore.

One such leader is Afroza Aktar Banu of Harabhanga in Meherpur -- an assistant teacher of a local high school.

After receiving training, she held meeting with locals and selected donors in the area. "We collected funds and purchased goats for six people at Tk 31,000; two cows at Tk 94,000; and helped people run a shop with Tk 38,000," Afroza said while sharing her experience.

Another leader, Anju Anwara Moina of Gopalpur in Tangail, said she formed a village development team and carried out projects in her locality.

Prof Kazi Maruf Islam, department of development studies of Dhaka University, suggested implementing such projects on a massive scale.

Executive Director of Institute for Inclusive Finance and Development Dr Mustafa K Mujeri termed voluntary leadership a social capital. "Such leadership can play significant role in the country's progress," said Mujeri.

Country Director of The Hunger Project Badiul Alam Majumdar said the project shows how a good number of people could be provided service at little expense.
