CITY DESK

Today is the 3rd death anniversary of Alhaj Jahanara Begum, mother of AHM Habibur Rahman, a joint secretary to the Law and Justice Division, said a press release.

On the occasion, a doamahfil will be held after Asr prayers at “Jahanara Monzil” in Saheb Para of Lalmonirhat town today. Food will be distributed among the destitute at the same place after Zohr prayers on November 9.

Relatives, friends and well-wishers have been requested to attend the programmes.

A large number of motor vehicle drivers crowd in front of the office of Deputy Commissioner of Dhaka Metropolitan Police's Traffic West, to pay out fines and clear the traffic rule violation cases filed against their licenses. Officials of the office said hundreds of people are flocking to the office, to make sure they are not penalised heavily under the newly-implemented Road Transport Act. Jubo Dal leader Tuku laid to rest

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Manikganj

Jubo Dal leader Kazi Raihan Uddin Tuku, also a prominent figure of the anti-autocracy movement in the nineties, was buried at his village graveyard at Sewta in Manikganj town yesterday.

His janaza took place on Government Devendra College premises in the town after Zohr prayers on the same day.

He died from cardiac arrest at Dhaka Medical College Hospital (DMCH) on Sunday evening. He was 50. He left behind his wife and daughter to mourn his death.

On Sunday, he went to the High Court in the morning to get bail in a case filed with Satoria Police Station against him and other BNP leaders under the explosives act.

After staying there for several hours, he suddenly became ill. He was immediately taken to DMCH where he was pronounced dead around 7pm, family sources said.

Tuku was president of Jatiyatabadi Jubo Dal's Manikganj district unit and member of the convening committee of the district's BNP unit.

He previously served as the president and general secretary (GS) of Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal's Manikganj district unit. He was also elected GS of Government Devendra College's student parliament.

If adopted, Bangladesh parliament will be the first to adopt such a motion, which will help the country lead the fight against climate change and other related issues.

In the meeting, the parliamentary body also asked the ministry to take a united position with non-government organisations and development agencies in the upcoming UN Climate Change Conference, which is scheduled to be held in Madrid, Spain from December 2-13.

Conference of the Parties (CoP), a part of the programme, is the formal meeting of parties to the UN Framework Convention on Climate Change. It is aimed at fleshing out details of the implementation of the landmark Paris Agreement climate pact, amid calls for urgent action from environmental groups and climate protesters.

The speaker also urged citizens to make contributions from their side to implement the constitution.

Former Justice Shamsul Huda urged the speaker of the House to take initiative in the parliament soon, to fully restore the constitution. He also demanded that the government observe constitution formulation day [November 4] nationally from next year.
