Hazard's slow start gathering pace

AFP, Madrid

Eden Hazard is beginning to show glimpses of his best form and it cannot come soon enough for Real Madrid.

They play at home to Galatasaray in the Champions League on Wednesday, when victory would put them within touching distance of qualification from Group A.

Hazard has endured a disjointed and disappointing start in Spain, where expectations soared following his long-awaited 100-million euro move from Chelsea in June.

A week later, 50,000 fans streamed into the Santiago Bernabeu to see Hazard wear the shirt while some even ran to the entrances to grab a better seat.

As supporters left, Hazard was giving his first press conference underneath the stadium, telling a packed auditorium he wanted to be a galactico.

"I'm not a galactico, not yet, but I hope I will be one day," he said.

But the grand opening fizzled, in part due to events off the pitch, a combination of bad luck and personal circumstances that have spared the 28-year-old harsher critique from fans and journalists alike.

On the day before Madrid's first game of the season away at Celta Vigo, Hazard pulled a muscle in his thigh in training and had to withdraw from the squad.

He sat out three matches before making his first start against Paris Saint-Germain, but looked off the pace and it was a night to forget as Madrid were thrashed 3-0.

Hazard was left on the bench against Osasuna amid reports he was overweight and then scored his first goal against Granada, a delightful looping finish that promised finally to unleash the Belgian's best.

"We know the quality of player we have and we know he is going to deliver," said Zinedine Zidane in September.

"Everyone expects a lot from him and he knows that. But we support him and as the games go by I am sure he is going to be the player we want him to be in this Real Madrid team."

But the international break checked Hazard's momentum and he missed Madrid's first match back, a 1-0 loss away at Mallorca, due to the birth of his fourth child.

In the three games since, he has appeared in bursts, delivering exhilarating moments like the glorious flick inside against Galatasaray and a run in behind to win the penalty against Leganes.

"He sees things that other players cannot see," Zidane said.

Yet there have been disappointments too, not so much glaring errors as a general hesitance, a tendency to choose the safe option or fail to choose at all when in those attacking positions he usually relishes.

U-19s take on Bahrain today

SPORTS REPORTER

Bangladesh will take on hosts Bahrain in their first match of Group E of the AFC U-19 Championship Qualifiers at the Khalifa Sports City Stadium in Manama today, looking to qualify for the final round for the first time in 17 years.

The match will kick off at 10:00pm Bangladesh time. Champions of 11 groups and four best runners-up teams will join Uzbekistan in the final round, which will be held from October 16 to 31 next year.

Bangladesh have been pitted alongside Bahrain, Jordan and Bhutan in the group and they will take on Jordan on November 8 before ending the qualifying campaign against South Asian rivals Bhutan two days later.

Bangladesh coach Andrew Peter Turner was looking forward to the competition as he felt his team is well prepared for the challenge.

"We are very much looking forward to this competition. We have prepared really well; had a very good SAFF competition. We've looked into the teams and the players and what they are about. We are looking to compete against three excellent teams," the coach said at the pre-tournament press briefing on Monday.

The English coach also said he was glad to see the support of the local Bangladeshi staff at the team hotel and hoped his team could give them a reason to celebrate.

BJF investigation proceeds at snail's pace

SPORTS REPORTER

The National Sports Council (NSC) have apparently made progress at a snail's pace in their investigation of the financial irregularities found in the Bangladesh Judo Federation (BJF). BJF president, Brigadier General (Rtd) SK Abu Baker, brought allegations of fund embezzlement against general secretary AKM Selim around four months ago.

Baker had filed a complaint on the matter to NSC secretary Masud Karim on June 25, requesting him to investigate the possible BJF fund embezzlement and take action against those concerned.

"Without my consent or approval, the BJF general secretary withdrew money from the federation account and used it illegally. That's why there is a great possibility that money was embezzled. Besides, the secretary seems to have no accountability," the letter read. "It is necessary to see how much money was debited and credited. I request you to take action against the offenders after auditing the BJF account by the auditor of CAG."

Baker also wrote that he would not operate the account and will not take responsibility if money gets embezzled.

After receiving the complaint, the NSC formed a one-member probe committee with director (admin) ABM Nasirul Alam taking up the charge. However, Alam's investigation is still ongoing and sought another two to three weeks to complete his report.

"I can't make any comments on it because I still need to investigate some things. I need another two to three weeks to complete the investigation," Alam told The Daily Star yesterday, adding that his investigation has gone on for the last two or three months.

It was also learnt that Alam had questioned both the BJF president and BJF general secretary on the matter about one-and-a-half months ago but he has yet to submit a report on it for unknown reasons.

NSC secretary Masud Karim said that he cannot make any moves until the independent probe committee submits its report.

"It is not financial irregularities, rather it is corruption and that is unfortunate for the country," BJF president Bakur told The Daily Star yesterday. "I requested the minister [state minister for youth and sports] to disband the committee and form an ad-hoc committee but I don't know what they are doing."

NZ take series lead after Eng collapse

AFP, Nelson

A dramatic England collapse which saw five wickets fall for only 10 runs allowed New Zealand to snatch a 14-run victory in their Twenty20 international in Nelson Tuesday.

It also put New Zealand 2-1 ahead in the series with two games to play.

England were on track to overhaul New Zealand's 180 when they reached 139 for two in the 15th over, with captain Eoin Morgan in full flight as he cracked sixes off consecutive Mitchell Santner deliveries.

But with England needing 42 off the remaining 31 deliveries Santner turned the match when he had Morgan caught by Colin Munro off the final ball of the over.

Dawid Malan (55) and James Vince (49) had laid a solid foundation for England at the top of the innings. But Morgan's dismissal started a collapse which saw Munro run out Sam Billings for one.

SCORES IN BRIEF
NEW ZEALAND: 180 for 7 in 20 overs (Guptill 33, De Grandhomme 55, Taylor 27; Curran 2-29)
ENGLAND: 166 for 7 in 20 overs (Malan 55, Vince 49; Ferguson 2-25, Tickner 2-25)

Result: New Zealand won by 14 runs and lead 5-match series 2-1.
Player-of-the-match: Colin de Grandhomme.

Atalanta aim to avoid another slaughter

AFP, Milan

Champions League rivals Manchester City in Milan on Wednesday.

The Premier League champions can seal their ticket to the knockout rounds with a win over Atalanta, who have lost all three Group C games in their first ever foray into the elite European competition.

Man City are top of their group with maximum nine points and 10 goals scored, with the Bergamo side bottom after conceding 11 goals conceded and scoring just two.

Five of those came last time out, when an 11-minute Raheem Sterling hattrick helped City to a 5-1 win in Manchester.

"The psychological aspect will be fundamental," said Gasperini.

"It's a tight turnaround, but we'll prepare as best we can."

Atalanta hit back in Serie A days later with a 7-1 demolition of lowly Udinese, but they have felt the absence of star Colombian striker Duvan Zapata, who has been out with a thigh injury picked up on international duty last month.

Without him Atalanta have slipped from third to fifth in Serie A, eight points behind leaders Juventus after a 2-0 defeat to Cagliari at the weekend.

Juventus, Inter Milan and Napoli are used to measuring themselves against the European elite, but Atalanta's only trophy was the Italian Cup back in 1963.

The turnaround in their fortunes has been orchestrated by former Genoa and Palermo boss Gasperini who took over in 2016.

The 61-year-old's success at Atalanta came eight years after being sacked by Inter Milan after just three months.

The northerners sprinted to third in Serie A last season ahead of Inter Milan, their best ever finish, with the most goals scored, and reached the Italian Cup final.

This season they have continued on the same path leading the way in the scoring charts with 30 goals scored after 11 rounds.

Their success has been largely powered by Zapata, who stayed on after finishing second top scorer in Serie A last season with 23 goals.

Zapata (6) and Muriel (8) have accounted for 14 league goals between them this term.
