STAR
WEEKEND
November 15, 2019

November 11, 2019

Cops harass protestors' families

10 protesting students allege that police harassed their family members in their village homes. They also allege that police threatened their family members with dire consequences if they did not stop joining the demonstration.

November 12, 2019

Solidarity rally held; protests continue

Teachers and students resume protests demanding the resignation of JU VC after a two-day interval due to bad weather. A solidarity rally is held in front of JU old registrar building with presence of many eminent citizens.

