

Rajuk Drive on ASK Civil society members express deep concern

STAFF CORRESPONDENT
Nagorik Samaj, a platform of civil society members, has expressed deep concern over a Rajuk mobile court drive on November 14 that fined and ordered Ain O Salish Kendra (ASK) to leave its Lalmeta office within two months for operating in a residential area. "Such penalisation of a rights body like ASK will hamper the development of freedom of speech and human rights... In this case, the punishment seems to be intentional and harassing, which is a matter of serious concern," the platform said in a press statement yesterday. Condemning the incident, the civil society members further said that such behaviour by the mobile court will restrict the independent activities of different citizens' platforms. The platform alleged that the ASK authorities were threatened with arrest by the mobile court, although they presented all the essential documents and stated that ASK is not a commercial organisation. The platform members who signed the press statement include Hameeda Hossain, Sultana Kamal, Khushi Kabir, Iftekharuzzaman, Sara Hossain, Zakir Hossain, Shamsul Huda, Shaheen Anam, Ranjan Karmakar and Sanjeeb Drong.

One more EC staff arrested in NID scam

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Cig
Officials of Counter Terrorism unit of Chattogram Metropolitan Police yesterday arrested another staff of the Election Commission, in a case filed over NID scam involving Rohingya. The arrestee Md Najim, is a peon of Chattogram Regional EC office, said police. With this, 11 persons including nine EC staff were arrested in the case filed on September 17 with Kotwali police station. Investigation Officer of the case Inspector Rajesh Barua of CT unit said, "Najim's name came to light in the confessional statements of three arrested EC staffers -- Joynal, Mostafa Faruk and Shah Nur Mia." Joynal is the ringleader of an NID forgery gang while Shah Nur allegedly ran another group from Dhaka, said police. In the SEE PAGE 4 COL 2

No one present to testify in Dipan murder case

JNU CORRESPONDENT
None of the summoned witnesses were present to testify in the Dipan murder case as the prosecution failed to produce them before the tribunal yesterday. Advocate Golam Sharuar Khan, assistant public prosecutor of the Anti-terrorism Special Tribunal of Dhaka, said, "Three witnesses were earlier summoned but none of them appeared before the tribunal yesterday." Razia Rahman, the victim's wife who was summoned to appear yesterday, claimed that she was not notified. "On October 13, the tribunal sent a summon letter to Pallabi Police Station for producing Razia Rahman before court, and sent two letters to Shahbagh Police Station for producing Mursalin Ahmed and Anowar Hossain," said Ruhul Amin, a bench assistant of the tribunal. "Police's duty is to inform the court if they are not able to communicate with witnesses after the summon letters are issued," he said. "But the tribunal did not get any response in this regard." OC Nazrul Islam of Pallabi Police Station said, "I will look into the matter and inform the authorities concerned." Judge Md Majibur Rahman set December 1 for the next testimony.

Still reeling from shock Case filed against absconding Ctg building owners; probe committee visits blast site

FM MIZANUR RAHAMAN, Cig
A sense of fear has gripped residents of port city's Patharghata Brickfield Road, following the massive gas explosion at a house on Sunday morning, which left seven people dead and at least 15 wounded. Like the probe committee, they want to know reason behind the blast and demand proper investigation so that such incidents do not reoccur. Meanwhile, a case was filed with Kotwali Police Station, accusing two owners of "Barua Bhaban". Yesterday, the probe committee formed by the Chattogram District Administration visited the spot, collected evidence and recorded statement of an injured person. Assistant Commissioner (Kotwali) Nobel Chakma said, "Wife of blast victim Mahmudul Haque, a rickshaw-puller, filed the case." Officials said building owners -- Amal Kanti Barua (48), and Titu Barua (40), sons of late Dharmapal Barua -- were sued over their negligence, which eventually killed and injured people. The Barua brothers, who are on the run, used to reside on the top floor of the building, said Ismail Bali, councillor of Patharghata ward. The building has been vacated, he added. A two-storey building, next to Barua Bhaban, was also vacated. Around 8:40am on Sunday, seven passers-by -- two women and five men -- were crushed to death as concrete walls fell on them following the explosion, which took place on the ground floor of the five-storey building. Fire fighters and explosives experts said the blast occurred due to a leak in gas pipe riser, but Karnaphuli Gas Distribution Company Ltd officials refuted it. Additional Deputy Magistrate AZM Sharif Hossen of the district administration, in-charge of the probe committee, said, "We have visited the spot... spoken to Sandha Nath, who used to stay on the ground floor." "It's still not clear why the blast occurred... We did not find any sign of burns there. But a resident of the building [ninth-grader Arpta Debnath] sustained burn injuries... We will visit the spot tomorrow [today] again," he added. The official said they have included two members of the district administration and explosives department in the committee. Visiting the area yesterday, this correspondent found that people were panicked. Many were seen gathering in front of the building trying to make sense of the situation. Parvin Akhter, a local, said, "My house was also affected by the massive blast... We demand investigators unearth the reason behind this incident so that others don't have to face such catastrophe." Ali Akbar of New Market area said, "I saw the incident on television, but up front you can sense the magnitude of the damage." BUILDING CODE BREACH Officials of Chattogram Development Authority (CDA) and city corporation had also visited the spot. Shahinul Islam, chairman of CDA's Building Authorisation Committee, said, "The building was constructed violating the CDA code... The gas riser was installed inside the house, which is also a violation of the code." "A septic tank was built right under the house where the accident occurred... the owner put up the boundary wall, on part of the road." "The area is densely populated and has old buildings... As per the masterplan, the road should be 40-feet wide. But we have found it 20-feet wide as most land owners built buildings on parts of the road," he said.

Seven killed in road accidents

STAR REPORT
Seven people, including two minors, were killed in separate road accidents in Naogaon, Nilphamari, and Noakhali on Sunday, report our correspondents. In Naogaon Sadar upazila, two minors among three were killed when a bus ran over them near Bot Tola area of Naogaon-Rajshahi highway early morning. All three were waiting to board a bus. Of the three, Adori Begum (35), and her daughter Shompa (6), died on the spot while Sumi (8) died from injuries at Rajshahi Medical College Hospital. Police seized the bus but the driver and helper managed to escape. A case was filed with Naogaon Sadar Police Station in this regard. Meanwhile in Noakhali, Sharifuzzaman Didar (40), a traders' leader, and his brother-in-law Asif Iqbal (32), sustained critical injuries after their motorcycle collided head-on with an unidentified microbus on Dimla-Jaldhaka road in Dimla upazila around 8pm. Locals rushed them to Dimla Upazila Health Complex where Sharif succumbed to his injuries, Mofizuddin Sheikh, officer-in-charge of Dimla Police Station, informed The Daily Star. In Sonaimuri upazila of Noakhali, three men died on the spot in a head-on collision between a motorcycle and bus in Bojra Bazar area around 11pm. The deceased was identified as Tipu, Javed, and Harun, Officer-in-Charge of Sonaimuri Police Station Abdus Salam told this newspaper. Another injured, Mashuk, was taken to Noakhali General Hospital in a critical condition.

CAUGHT ON CAMERA Court staff suspended for taking bribe

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Barishal
An office assistant of the speedy trial tribunal in Barishal was suspended on Sunday afternoon, after a video of her demanding and taking bribe from a service-seeker went viral on social media. The over six minutes video, uploaded on Thursday, showed Rekha Rani Das was taking bribe from applicants for receiving certified copies of legal documents. It showed, Rekha was engaged in an altercation with an applicant while demanding Tk 1,000 from him for certified copy of a bail bond, even after he paid the necessary court fees. Advocate AHM Jahangir Hossain, public prosecutor, said Judge AHM Mahbubur Rahman of the tribunal issued the suspension order. The applicant, Muniruzzaman Munir, said the district judge on November 6 granted him bail in a case. He went to the tribunal office on November 11 in court area with an application for the bail order. The court staff member, Rekha, demanded Tk 1,000 from him. As he refused, she started arguing with him. Meantime, she took money from other applicants. Amid the commotion, Munir recorded the incident and eventually uploaded the video on social media. Rekha, however, denied taking bribe. "I only took money for copying documents. I had to copy a large amount of paper, related to the case."
