

COVER STORY

Wedding bells are ringing;
gold is back
with a bling!

Bangladeshi weddings are witnessing a change in the way they look, becoming grandeur by every passing season. There was a time when the bride and the groom were left with little choice as to what they would wear, from the sari to the sherwani, to what jewellery they will don to accompany their wedding dress, but today, their decision matters most.

