1,000 illegal structures demolished in Savar

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Savar

A team of Roads and Highways Department (RHD) have evicted some 1,000 illegal structures on both sides of the Dhaka-Aricha highway in Savar. The drives took place from Genda area to Savar Bus Stand, ahead of the Victory Day, said Mohammad Mahbubur Rahman Faruki, executive magistrate and estate and law officer of RHD Dhaka. The demolished structures included parts of 20 high-rise buildings, said Arif, a surveyor of RHD, adding 10 acres of space owned by the government body were freed up. Materials including wood and abandoned vehicles parked on highway land were sold on auction, he added. Meanwhile, a group of workers of Pakiza Dyeing and Printing Industries beside Dhaka-Aricha Highway blocked vehicular movement on the road, following an altercation with RHD authorities. The blockade was removed after law enforcers asked them to leave the spot, said Faruki, adding that they did not make any arrests. Many people whose structures were demolished alleged that no prior notice was served to them before the drive, and termed he eviction "selective" and an "eyewash". Refuting the allegation, Faruki said people were informed about the drive through loudspeakers, and the drives are being conducted on the basis of map made by surveyors. The drive continued till 7pm at Savar Bus Stand area. Asked whether eviction would continue, executive magistrate Faruki said both sides of Dhaka-Aricha highway will be cleared of encroachment soon.

RANGPUR MEDICAL COLLEGE HOSPITAL Treatment hampered by intern doctor-nurse row

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Dinajpur

Treatment at Rangpur Medical College Hospital (RMCH) was badly hampered yesterday, as nurses and intern doctors declared work abstention in the morning, following an altercation between two members of the groups on Monday evening. Leaving patients unattended, both groups demonstrated on hospital premises, demanding punishment for the other. They, however, withdrew their strike in the afternoon after holding a meeting with the hospital authorities. According to hospital sources, Dr Ananya, an intern of the dental department, was tending to a patient at ward-27 on Monday evening along with nurse Nilufa Yasmin Urmi. At one point, an ampule Urmi was holding broke and some water spilled on Ananya. As Ananya scolded her, Urmi allegedly became angry and misbehaved, which led to an argument. Urmi, however, claimed that Ananya slapped her. Senior doctors sat with them that night to solve the dispute, but to no avail. Yesterday morning, around 80 nurses besieged the department, demanding justice. On the other hand, intern doctors staged a protest in front of the director's office. Both groups demonstrated till 1pm. Around 2pm, acting director Dr Shahadat Hossain sat with them, but the meeting ended without any result. Dr Faridul Islam, director of the hospital, who is in Dhaka now told The Daily Star over phone. They, however, agreed to return to work. Contacted, Forkan Ali, president of Nurses Association at the hospital, said another meeting will be held today over the incident.

ESTABLISHING LABOUR RIGHTS

ILO to provide all-out support: Anisul

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Law Minister Anisul Huq yesterday said cooperation from the International Labour Organization (ILO) is needed in order to fully establish the labour rights in the country. "The International Labour Organization is ready to provide all cooperation to Bangladesh in order to achieve the standards set by Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina-led government for establishing the labour rights," he said. The minister said this while talking to reporters after a meeting with ILO Country Director Tuomo Poutiainen at his secretariat office. He said the ILO country director has informed him that the organisation is ready to provide all cooperation, if needed, to implement the promises Bangladesh has made at ILO conferences, and to carry out the responsibilities it has given to the country. The ILO delegation will take a decision on this issue after discussing with the labour ministry, the minister said, adding that the country director also informed him about different programmes on the occasion of ILO's 100th founding anniversary.
