

STAR WEEKEND

in other news...

NOVEMBER 29, 2019

98% few hours remaining

Change is the only constant 23 years and three avatars later, the Star Weekend magazine arrives upon its last ever edition. Being your Friday companion has been an education in hard work and creativity. As we face the curtain call, we offer to you one last critical look at something we care passionately about, and offer in the process an explanation as to what catalysed the last chapter of Star Weekend. This week, as we end, we talk about the future of journalism.

COVER: MANAN MORSHED

