

A New Decade of Moushumi

Actor Moushumi Hamid will be seen in two new films next year. The projects that she has signed are Ghor, directed by Gazi Rakayet, and Kathgorai Sarat Chandra, directed by Arifur Zaman Arif. Moushumi said, "Two of my new films will be released next year, and both are story based. I had a lot of scope for acting and doing something out of my comfort zone. I hope these new projects will live up to the audience's expectation." Besides, she starred in a short film, The Sunrise, opposite Shamol Mawla.

Mahiya Mahi has begun shooting for a film after a break. The film, titled Anondo Osru, is being directed by Mostafizur Rahman Manik, with Symon Sadik as the male lead. Shahiduzzaman Selim and Joy Chowdhury will also star in the film. Mahiya Mahi said, "I was quite busy working for my fashion house, Bhara. I am always present at shootings, but I devote any free time I get to the fashion house. The film, Anondo Osru, is very close to my heart." Mahiya Mahi was last seen in the film, Obotar, which was released in October this year.

Taskeen's Lucky 7

Taskeen Rahman is currently busy with a number of new projects: Shaan by M Rahim, Dhaka 2040 and Operation Sundarban by Dipankar Dipon, Girgiti by Saurabh Kundu, Mission Extreme by Faisal Ahmed, Ostad by Saif Chandan and Casino by Saikat Nasir, for which he is shooting now. Majority of Shaan's shooting has been completed as of now, while Mission Extreme is awaiting its release. Taskeen said, "The seven films are of seven different kinds; the storylines are of different genres. I have been able to play around with the characters in each film like I have always wanted. This is a very challenging task."
