METRO RAIL PROJECT

Installation of tracks begins Jan 1

Uttara starting point; 8km of 20.10km-long viaduct now visible

TUHIN SHUBHRA ADHIKARY

Installation of the first rail lines on elevated viaducts will begin next week, with the first one being fixed at the depot area in the capital's Uttara.

Road Transport and Bridges Minister Obaidul Quader will inaugurate the installation of the rail lines on the first day of the new year, officials said.

More than eight kilometres of the 20.10km long viaduct is now visible and work is continuing on the remaining ones.

"We have completed all our preparations to start installing rail lines on December 20 and the minister will formally inaugurate it on January 1," MAN Siddique, managing director of DMTCL, told The Daily Star yesterday.

The Dhaka Mass Transit Company Limited (DMTCL), a government-owned company, is implementing the metro rail projects.

Construction work of the Tk 22,000-crore Mass Rapid Transit (MRT Line)-6, which began in 2016, has made 38.35 percent progress as of November and is expected to be opened to the public on December 16, 2021, coinciding with the golden jubilee of the country's independence.

Once completed, the rail service, which has 16 stations, SEE PAGE 10 COL 2

DIVISIVE CITIZENSHIP ACT Protests rage across India Kolkata HC directs WB govt to suspend anti-CAA, NRC media campaigns

OUR CORRESPONDENT, New Delhi

Protests against the amended citizenship act slammed as anti-Muslim continued in Delhi, Chennai, Bengaluru and West Bengal yesterday.

More than 20 people have died in the protests against the act since it was signed by President Ram Nath Kovind on December 11. Fifteen of these deaths have taken place in Uttar Pradesh, five in Assam and two in Mangaluru.

Top Congress leaders yesterday began a sit-in protest at Raighat, the memorial of India's Father of the Nation Mahatma Gandhi, in central Delhi.

Before joining the sit-in demonstration, Rahul had tweeted asking students and youth to show up at the event.

"It's not good enough just to feel India. At times like these, it's critical to show that you're Indian and won't allow India to be destroyed by hatred. Join me today at 3 PM at Raj Ghat, to protest against the hate and violence unleashed on India by Modi-Shah," he said on Twitter.

KHASHOGGI MURDER CASE 5 get death penalty

Two top figures exonerated, says Saudi prosecutor; justice 'trampled' in trial: RSF

AFP, Riyadh

Five people have been sentenced to death over the murder of journalist Jamal Khashoggi, but two top figures investigated over the killing have been exonerated, Saudi Arabia's public prosecutor said yesterday.

Khashoggi, a Washington Post contributor, was murdered in October last year in what Riyadh called a "rogue" operation, tipping the kingdom into one of its worst diplomatic crises and tarnishing the reputation of Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman.

The 59-year-old Saudi insider-turned-critic was strangled and his body cut into pieces by a 15-man Saudi squad inside the kingdom's consulate in Istanbul, according to Turkish officials. His remains have not been found.

"We found that Khashoggi's murder was not premeditated," Saudi deputy general prosecutor Shalaan al-Shalaan told a press conference.

Saudi prosecutors had said deputy intelligence chief Ahmed al-Assiri oversaw Khashoggi's killing and that he was advised by the royal court's media czar Saud al-Qahtani.

However, Qahtani was investigated but not indicted "due to insufficient evidence" and Assiri was investigated and charged but eventually acquitted on the same grounds, the prosecutor said in a statement.

Both aides were part of Prince Mohammed's tight-knit inner circle and were formally sacked over the killing, but only Assiri appeared in the court hearings, according to Western sources.

Media rights watchdog Reporters without Borders said justice was "trampled" upon with the death sentence of five Saudis for the murder last year of journalist Jamal Khashoggi.

An invite, not a legal notice to president

Claims Telenor; Jabbar says it was indeed legal notice

STAR REPORT

Clarifying the issue over a "legal notice" to President Abdul Hamid, Grameenphone's parent company Telenor has claimed that it was not a legal notice but an invitation letter to him for dialogue.

"Telenor Group sent an invitation letter for dialogue, and not a legal notice," Cathrine Stang Lund, director of Group Communication Asia, Telenor Group, said in a statement on Sunday, UNB reported.

According to the treaty process, she said such letters should be sent to heads of state.

Telenor had made Bilateral Investment Treaty with the governments of Bangladesh and Singapore. On Thursday, Posts SEE PAGE 10 COL 5

World's oldest known fossil forest found

CNN ONLINE

Evidence of the world's oldest forest, dating back some 385 million years, has been discovered in an abandoned quarry in upstate New York, according to a new study published in Current Biology.

The fossilised roots-- footprints of an ancient landscape-- belonged to trees with wood and leaves, similar to what we see today, the study says.

Says Quader about those who fled country during 2001 violence

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

People from religious minorities may have gone to India "due to persecution" after the BNP-led four-party alliance came to power in 2001, said Road Transport and Bridges Minister Obaidul Quader yesterday.

"We will take them back if they want to return," Quader, also the general secretary of the ruling Awami League, said replying to a question at a press briefing on contemporary issues at his secretariat SEE PAGE 10 COL 5
