Quality foreigners make Fed Cup competitive

SPORTS REPORTER

Ending the dominance of traditional powerhouses, the just-concluded Federation Cup produced a new champion, with big-budget Bashundhara Kings beating minnows Rahmatganj in an entertaining final on Sunday.

The season's curtain-raising tournament had its fair share of upsets, with three-time champions Sheikh Jamal and big-spenders Sheikh Russel KC eliminated from the group stage. The other big teams such as 11-time champions Abahani, 10-time champions Mohammedan, Saif SC and Chattogram Abahani fell victim to either minnows Rahmatganj or promoted Bangladesh Police FC.

Those upsets reflected how competitive the 22-match tournament was, giving an indication of how competitive the upcoming Bangladesh Premier League could be.

The Federation Cup saw 51 goals scored, out of which 34 were by the foreign players. The number of goals was, however, 23 less than the season's Federation Cup, but that was mostly due to the presence of quality foreign defenders and compact defence of the teams.

Coaches of different clubs admitted that the tournament was very tough and the standard of play increased due to the presence of quality foreign players, even at small clubs.

"The federation cup was overall a good tournament. Teams like Rahmatganj, Bangladesh Police, Mohammedan surprised other teams. Bashundhara were very consistent and deserved to win but Abahani were disappointing as we lost in the quarterfinals. We should have done better," Abahani coach Mario Lemos said. "The League is going to be tougher. Every team got stronger, also this year we allowed to five foreigners. It's going to be more challenging this time."

"The Federation Cup was, as expected, competitive as the small teams played really well and did not any room to the big teams. The small teams are getting closer to the big teams in terms of strength," said Chattogram Abahani coach Maruful Haque. "The standard of play has improved as all teams played very calculative football."

"Every team, from small to big, tried to sign quality foreign players in centre-back, defensive midfield and attacking positions. Those players had good influence in maintaining tempo of the matches aside from the influence of coaches. That's why the Federation Cup turned more competitive than the last season," said Sheikh Russel KC coach Saiful Bari Titu.

However, Mohammedan coach Sean Lane was not prepared to judge the performance of the teams based on the Federation Cup only.

"I think it is difficult to judge the season just on the basis of the Federation cup performances. Many teams started training late and all teams were at different stages of fitness. I think the league will be closer than last season," Lane said. "Mohammedan is in a rebuilding phase. We want to get a good start in the league and we certainly want to do better than last year."

Lane, however, believes big-budget teams will eventually prevail. "Most of the new clubs performed well in the Fed Cup, but I still expect the big clubs with big budget to be on top of the league."

Maruful also believes the minnows will lose out in the long run while the big clubs will remain in the title race.

"Management is a big factor in the league because small teams are eager to complete the league within a short period while their players are focused on avoiding relegation, but players of big teams stay focused on the title race," explained the UEFA A licence holder.

Though Maruful believes new teams may emerge as title contenders, Titu feels the race will be confined to within the big teams who have previously won the title.

CHelsea FEEL THE BLUES OVER LOSS

Chelsea made a loss of almost £100 million last year despite owner Roman Abramovich pouring nearly a quarter of a billion pounds into the Premier League club, their figures for 2018/19 released yesterday show. Amongst their expenditure was yet another payout to a sacked manager – this time £26.6 million to Italian Antonio Conte. "Exceptional items in the current year of £26.6million relate to changes in respect of the men's team management and coaching staff, together with associated legal costs," read Chelsea's latest set of published accounts, for the year ending June 30, 2019. The club has spent £90 million in compensation to Conte and his predecessors since Abramovich took over in 2004. The club also invested £280.6m in their playing squad during 2018-19, with the acquisitions of Kepa Arrizabalaga, Christian Pulisic, Mateo Kovacic and Jorginho all included in their latest figures. In all Abramovich, who has at times been rumoured to be disenchanted and looking to sell, put in £247 million of his own money over the course of the year – ending in June 2019 – with the club still ending £96.6m in the red.

India take 1-0 lead

AFP, Indore

Fast bowler Navdeep Saini led a disciplined Indian bowling performance to set up a seven-wicket win over Sri Lanka in the second Twenty20 international in Indore on Tuesday.

Saini returned impressive figures of 2-18 while fellow paceman Shardul Thakur claimed three wickets to help restrict Sri Lanka to 142 for nine, a total the hosts surpassed in 17.3 overs to take a 1-0 lead in the three-match series. The opening match was rained off.

KL Rahul, who top-scored with 45, and Shikhar Dhawan, who made 32, on his return from injury, put on 71 runs for the opening wicket to lay the platform for India's comfortable chase on a good batting pitch.

Leg-spinner Wanindu Hasaranga sent back the two openers as he bowled Rahul with a googly and then dismissed Dhawan lbw after a successful Sri Lanka review.

Shreyas Iyer, who scored 34 before falling to paceman Lahiru Kumara, and skipper Virat Kohli, who made an unbeaten 30 and hit the winning six, put on a key 51-run stand for the third wicket.

But it was the Indian bowlers who set the platform for victory after Kohli won the toss and elected to field first.

Sri Lanka kept losing wickets at regular intervals despite a brisk start but it was wrist spinner Kuldeep Yadav's two key strikes including Kusal Perera, for 28, that further put a lid on the islanders' scoring.

Saini, who bowled opener Danushka Gunathilaka for 20, claimed Bhanuka Rajapaksa caught behind for nine as Sri Lanka slipped to 104 for five.

Pace spearhead Jasprit Bumrah also took a wicket on his return from a four-month injury lay-off by bowling Dasun Shanaka with a slower ball.

Thakur returned in his final over and the team's 19th to rattle the lower-order with three strikes including two in successive deliveries.

Hasaranga signed off the innings with three successive fours off Bumrah but his effort was not enough.

The third and final match is on Friday in Pune.

Stokes helps Eng level series

AFP, Cape Town

Ben Stokes produced an explosive spell of bowling as England beat South Africa by 189 runs inside the last hour of the fifth day of the second Test at Newlands yesterday.

The win levelled the four-match World Test championship series.

South Africa were bowled out for 248, with the last wicket falling when only 8.2 overs were left in the match.

Stokes took the last three wickets in the space of 14 balls to clinch the victory.

Only three wickets fell before tea as South Africa defended grimly after starting the day on 126 for two after being set an improbable 438 to win.

Opening batsman Pieter Malan, making his debut, made 84 in 369 minutes and 288 balls before he fell to Sam Curran.

It meant England needed five wickets in the last session.

Stokes produced an inspired spell to have Dwaine Pretorius and Anrich Nortje caught in the slips before he took the final wicket when Vernon Philander was caught at gully.

Lukaku helps Inter back to top

AGENCIES, Milan

Inter Milan forward Romelu Lukaku scored twice, the first from a run which started inside his own half, to lead his side to an entertaining 3-1 win at Napoli which kept them top of Serie A on Monday.

Lautaro Martinez was also on target as Inter claimed their first away win against Napoli since 1997.

Inter lead the standings on goal difference from Juventus, who beat Cagliari 4-0 earlier on Monday, with both teams on 45 points. The head-to-head record will be used once the two sides have met twice.

Napoli, on the other hand, suffered their second defeat in three games since Gennaro Gattuso replaced Carlo Ancelotti as coach and stayed eighth with 24 points despite showing flashes of their old style.

Napoli had chances before Lukaku put Inter ahead after 13 minutes. The Belgian, who now has 14 league goals this term, intercepted a pass just inside his own half, charged forward and scored with a shot which went in off the post.

His second in the 33rd minute came with a helping hand from Napoli goalkeeper Alex Meret, who seemed to have Lukaku's shot covered but allowed it to slip through his legs into the net.

Napoli kept plugging away and Arkadiusz Milik tapped in Jose Callejon's low cross to pull one back in the 39th minute. The Pole should then have equalised when he had a free header just before halftime but directed his effort well wide of the goal.

Napoli continued to press after the break but, despite some flowing moves, they failed to find the final pass and Inter went further ahead just after the hour.

Matias Vecino floated over a cross from the right which Napoli defender Kostas Manolas managed to intercept but, in doing so, laid the ball off for Martinez to score his ninth league goal of the season.

Inter Milan striker Romelu Lukaku celebrates after scoring his second goal in a Serie A encounter with Napoli, which the Nerazzurri won 3-1, at the San Paolo stadium in Naples on Monday.
