The Fun Snack is a Good Snack

The roaring sound of the engine and few bumps every few minutes. That's a typical bus journey these days. Tedious and exhausting. Your only comfort is that when you get off the bus, eventually, you'll get some much-needed 'me' time in the form of an adda at the local tong. These late evening addas are no fun without a cup of steaming tea to wash off the lethargy that comes at the end of the day. And where there is tea, there is biscuit.

Tea and biscuit, as simple as it sounds, is nothing short of a rejuvenating potion and if you are going to do that whole ritual, do it right with a biscuit that's tasty and fun to munch on. This is where Bisk Club's Fruit Fun comes in.

How often do you take a bite from a large chunk of a bland biscuit and forget how long you've been chewing? Biscuits are crunchy bits of food that are supposed to be enjoyed and there's no other biscuit that does this job better than sandwich biscuits. And Fruit Fun, offers that deliciousness with a lush filling of cream in the middle.

Sandwich biscuits have always been popular because of the cream filling. And why not? Snacks are offerings to the tastebuds. Fruit Fun offers sandwich biscuits packed with cream that is sweetened with pineapple flavour, a taste that lingers after you've finished your pack and quite often are left wanting more.

You're on the road and forgot to pack some snacks? Pick a pack or two of Fruit Fun. They are conveniently available in almost every tong and shop, hanging by the packs.

Need something delicious yet budget friendly for the weekly office meeting or your Book Club? They got you covered. While each pack is usually served for one person, you can get the family pack for your meetings and gatherings.

If you are not a fan of the pineapple flavour or just want something different, you can still pick Fruit Fun since it is also available in chocolate flavour. And it's hard to find someone who doesn't like chocolate.

The creams inside the sandwich biscuits ensures that the biscuits aren't just light crunchy morsels. Youngsters will appreciate the sandwich because of the rich cream filling. Thus, making it a good choice for afternoon snacks.

If worse comes to worse and you actually miss your lunch, two packs of Fruit Fun can easily act as a substitute to give you enough boost for the next few hours. With each pack available at only Tk 5, Fruit Fun is a very reasonable choice.

Maybe you were late for school and had no time to grab something for Tiffin. Or you were late to the canteen and there's nothing left for lunch. A pack of Fruit Fun can be very useful at times like this. A few biscuits, a bottle of water and you are settled.

Even if you need a quick meal in the middle of a long train or bus journey (we don't recommend it during a pandemic but sometimes there are no choices), Fruit Fun can be the ultimate choice. Think about it. It's lightweight, convenient to carry and available everywhere. You can even munch on one of the cream stuffed biscuits while you speak on the phone or even have a casual game of Candy Crush on your smartphone.

Journey snack, evening adda or late-night snack- whatever your need is, Fruit Fun is available at your nearest shop. Grab a pack and enjoy the comfort of the cream sandwich.
