

Boy dies after being mauled by dogs

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Dinajpur

A nine-year-old boy died in Dinajpur's Kaharol upazila after a pack of dogs mauled him on Sunday evening.

The deceased was Hriday Shil, son of Abinash Shil of Pouria (Napatpara) village under Mukundapur village in Kaharol Upazila of Dinajpur. The boy was a third-grader at a local primary school.

According to the family members and villagers, Hriday went out of his home to go to a nearby potato field early in the evening on Sunday.

Afterwards, he was returning home alone at around 6pm. On his way back, a pack of five agitated dogs attacked and mauled the boy badly. Hearing his screams, locals rushed to the spot and rescued Hriday.

Doctors at Kaharol Upazila Health Complex declared him dead upon arrival.

"The victim was brought in dead," said Dr Shafiqul Azom, upazila, health and family planning officer. He said the dogs mauled the boy all over his body, but attacks on his neck and throat proved to be deadly and hence the boy died on the spot.

After the attack, a high level of panic is prevailing over the village, said Mukundapur Union Chairman AKM Faruk. He added that they are trying to come up with solutions to solve the dog overpopulation problem without killing the animals, as there is an instruction to not kill dogs.

AKM Faruk said he has spoken to local lawmakers to find a solution.

Rakibul Haq Emil, chairman of People for Animal Welfare (PAW) said such incidents are rare in the country.

"I have never heard of such a fatal attack from dogs," said the animal rights activist, adding that the dogs might have been agitated due to provocation or untoward behaviour towards them.

Former UP chairman found dead at home

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Police recovered the body of a former Union Parishad (UP) chairman from his house at Satkania upazila of Chattogram yesterday morning.

The deceased is Abdul Haque (75), former chairman of Keochia union of Satkania, said police.

There were injury marks on his head, they added.

Anwar Hussain, officer-in-charge of Satkania Police Station, said on information, police went to Haque's residence around 10am, recovered the body and sent it to Chattogram Medical College Hospital morgue for autopsy.

The OC said the former chairman used to reside in the house alone with a caretaker named Jamir (26).

Police took Jamir into custody for interrogation in this connection, he added.

The main road of Sylhet city's Amborkhana area is dug almost down the middle for repair work on the area's water supply. This is taking its toll on pedestrians, vehicular movement, as well as on the busy area's entrepreneurs. Locals say their day-to-day activities would be far less disrupted if the development work was carried out from 8pm-6am instead of daytime. This photo was taken on Sunday.

NMST named best org of science ministry

CITY DESK

National Museum of Science and Technology (NMST) has been awarded "Best Organisation" of the Ministry of Science and Technology in implementing Annual Performance Agreement for 2019-20.

Md Anwar Hossain, senior secretary of science and technology ministry, handed over a crest and certificate to NMST Director General Muhammad Munir Chowdhury on February 24, said a press release yesterday.

The same day, Munir organised a thanksgiving ceremony for NMST employees, where he said all employees deserve credit for such an achievement.

He urged employees to work diligently with integrity and dedication.

Munir said the museum needs more upgrades and development to flourish science education and achieve international standards, the release said.

12 DU students expelled for digital fraud

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The Dhaka University authorities have expelled 12 students after different allegations, including digital fraud and admission through illegal ways, against them were proven.

Besides, 151 others have been suspended for different terms for adopting unfair means in the exams, said a press release.

The decision has been taken, based on the recommendation of the university's disciplinary committee, during a syndicate meeting with DU VC Prof Akhteruzzaman in chair at the Senate Building on Sunday evening, it added.

House area on Rupnagar Beribandh, a truck hit the vehicle, leaving Rinta dead on the spot, said Lokman Hossain, a sub-inspector of Rupnagar Police Station.

Salma was declared dead after she was rushed to Dhaka Medical College Hospital around noon.

The accident also left Rima and Salek injured. They were receiving treatment at National Institute of Traumatology and Orthopedic Rehabilitation in the city.

Talking to reporters at DMCH, Rinta's aunt Shewly Begum said her mother along with the children came to visit her father in Adabar three days ago.

The truck driver fled after the accident. Police said they are trying to identify the vehicle.

Residents

He said that by the time they launch their operation, 90 percent of the residents will be gone from the area.

"As they are withdrawing from Laldiarchar, we do not have to go for eviction. Now, we will fence up 52 acres of area at Laldiarchar," he said.

He said it is the biggest peaceful eviction operation.

In December last year, the High Court issued an order to CPA to evict illegal occupants of Kamaphuli River and submit a compliance report before it by March 9.

As per the HC order, authorities told the people to remove their belongings by the end of February.

Md Zafar Alam, member (admin) of CPA, told The Daily Star earlier they want to construct a terminal at Laldiarchar.

inquiry committee, and a syndicate. I have always done my job properly. So, I have no comment on this," he said.

Marjan, a lecturer of DU's criminology department, is currently on a study leave abroad. The Daily Star could not reach him.

Both the teachers were demoted on January 28.

A research paper titled "A New Dimension in Colonialism and Pop Culture: A Case Study of the Cultural Imperialism" was published on DU's social sciences journal on December 2016.

In September 2017, DU authorities formed a committee, led by then Pro-VC Nasreen Ahmad, to inquire into a complaint that stated that the paper was copied from write-ups of prominent writers Michel Foucault and Edward Said.

Samia claimed that she applied to change the committee in December 2019, but it was refused.

When asked, DU VC Prof Md Akhteruzzaman said, "We respect her freedom of speech and are careful in preserving her dignity. There is nothing much to talk about in this matter."

Jaago Foundation raises awareness on Covid vaccination

CITY DESK

Jaago Foundation, in collaboration with Urmi Group, has completed a Covid-19 vaccination awareness campaign to bring underprivileged communities under the government's vaccination programme against Covid-19.

Titled "Shurukkhatei Rokkha", the campaign ran from February 21-28, supported by Volunteer for Bangladesh.

For this Covid-19 vaccination campaign, volunteers went door to door to raise awareness among underprivileged people, who often find it difficult to access technology, said a press release.

Mizanur Rahman, a resident of Agargaon slum, said, "I could not register for the vaccination before. With the volunteers' help, it only took a few minutes with their help."

Korvi Rakshand, founder and executive director of Jaago Foundation, said, "Many people from the underprivileged community face challenges in signing up through the website, getting their cards printed, etc. Taking these challenges into account, We have launched the campaign to help people get vaccinated in every district."

tenth grade has to be mandatory, he said.

"If there is not enough space for assembly at the school playground, then students have to render the national anthem standing in their classrooms," he added.

The minister stressed for creating mass opinion in this regard, adding that platforms like Nirmul Committee can play a significant role to this end.

Addressing the webinar, Shahrir Kabir, president of Nirmul Committee, said on occasion of the golden jubilee, multi-dimensional initiatives should be undertaken to uphold the glorious history and spirit of the Liberation War among the new generation at home and around the world.

Addressing a rally organised by Sammilita Samajik Andolon in front of the National Museum, speakers said it is essential for patriots to take a firm stance to rebuild the nation, according to a press release.

They praised Bangladesh's achievements in becoming a developing country.

They, however, said inequality between the poor and rich still persists.

After the rally, a procession carrying the national flag was brought out, which ended at "Shikha Chirantan" premises inside Suhrawardy Udyan. Later, participants offered floral wreaths as tribute to the martyred.

Sanghati Prokashan in a separate press release said by publishing 50 books marking the golden jubilee of the country's independence, it wants to highlight the different progresses achieved in the country in gthe course of the past five decades.

Seven of the books will be published soon, it added.
