COUP IN MYANMAR

Neighbours press for Suu Kyi's release

Several people hurt as police open fire to disperse protesters; journos arrested

AGENCIES

Myanmar's neighbours yesterday pressed its ruling military to release ousted leader Aung San Suu Kyi and cease what Singapore called the disastrous use of lethal force against opponents of their February 1 coup and work out a solution to the crisis.

The calls from fellow members of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (Asean) came as Myanmar police again opened fire to disperse crowds after weeks of demonstrations against military rule. Several people were wounded, witnesses said.

Asean foreign ministers held talks with a representative of the junta in a video call two days after the bloodiest day of unrest since the military overthrew Suu Kyi's elected government.

At least 21 people have been killed since the coup, which Singapore Prime Minister Lee Hsien Loong said in an interview with the BBC was a "tragic" step back for Myanmar.

The foreign minister of Indonesia, which has been pushing a regional diplomatic effort, urged Myanmar to "open its doors" to the Asean bloc to resolve the escalating tension.

Niko Graft Case

Khaleda Zia exempted from court appearance

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A Dhaka court has exempted BNP Chairperson Khaleda Zia from personal appearance in the Niko graft case.

Judge Sheikh Hafizur Rahman of the Special Judge's Court-9 of Dhaka passed the order on February 16, following a petition submitted by Khaleda's lawyer Masud Ahmed Talukder.

The court yesterday began the hearing on charge-framing in the case filed against Khaleda and eight others, defence lawyer Zia Uddin told The Daily Star.

Defence lawyer Zaynal Abedin Meshbah represented Khaleda in the court in her absence.

During yesterday's hearing, Advocate Masud Ahmed Talukder cited

Take legal action against 30 washing plants

HC asks DoE in ruling on Buriganga pollution

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The High Court yesterday directed the Department of Environment (DoE) to take appropriate legal action against 30 washing plants in Keraniganj for polluting the Buriganga.

The court also directed the DoE to submit a report before it within seven days after complying with the directive.

Meanwhile, the court issued a rule asking the authorities to explain why contempt of court proceedings should not be brought against them for giving further gas and electricity connections to the companies polluting Buriganga despite its prohibition order.

The managing director of Titas Gas Transmission and Distribution Company Ltd (TGTDCL) and chairman of Rural Electrification Board (REB) were respondents to the rule and two weeks were given to them for an explanation.

The HC bench of Justice Gobinda Chandra Tagore and Justice Mohammad Ullah passed the order while hearing a writ petition filed by the rights organisation Human Rights and Peace for

WITHDRAW FORCES AND TRANSFER POWER
At a meeting organised at Paltan Maidan, Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman urged the authorities to withdraw forces from the city and hand over power to the elected representatives of the people. He also called for launching a no-tax campaign.

Bangabandhu, in an apparent reference to West Pakistan leaders, said, "If you do not want to frame one constitution let us frame our own constitution and you frame your own. Then let us see if we can live together as brothers."

He appealed for communal peace and added the Biharis and non-Muslims "are our sacred trust".

Complete strikes were observed all through Bangladesh for the first time in response to the call of Bangabandhu. Spontaneous processions were brought out by general people. Several people were killed as the army opened fire on protesters. In Rangpur, as fights broke out between Pakistani army men and civilians, a 24-hour curfew was imposed from 2:30pm in the afternoon. A curfew was also imposed in Sylhet.

YAHYA'S ROUNDTABLE INVITATION
In the evening, there was a radio announcement proposing a roundtable conference of political leaders to be convened by President Yahya Khan in Dhaka on March 10, 1971. This was an effort to find a political

Libya arrests 'main suspect' in murder of Bangladeshis

AFP, Tripoli

One of the main suspects in the murder in Libya of 30 mostly Bangladeshi migrants last year was arrested on Monday, authorities in Tripoli said.

In May 2020, the family of a human trafficker killed by migrants for unknown reasons allegedly avenged his death by killing 26 Bangladeshis and four migrants of African origin.

The massacre took place in May in the city of Mezzah, more than 150 kilometres (just over 90 miles) south of Libya's capital. Eleven other migrants were wounded.

One of the alleged killers, 23, was arrested Monday in Gharyan, around 100 kilometres southwest of the capital, the unity government's interior ministry said in a statement.

Wanted by the authorities, "he confessed

Churchill's 'most important' painting sells for £7m

AFP, London

A painting of Marrakesh by Britain's famed wartime prime minister Winston Churchill, owned by Hollywood star Angelina Jolie, smashed expectations to sell for £7 million ($9.75 million) at auction in London on Monday.

Churchill, a keen artist, took inspiration from the Moroccan city and painted "The Tower of the Koutoubia Mosque" oil work during a World War II visit in 1943.

He gave the finished article to fellow wartime leader, US president Franklin Roosevelt.

Auction house Christie's called it "Churchill's most important work".

Singer Jane Alam passes away

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Noted singer Jane Alam passed away yesterday at the Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujib Medical University Hospital around 10:00pm.

He was 65.

According to Zahirul Islam Sohel, owner of production house CD Choice, Alam was infected with Covid-19 and was under treatment at the hospital for a month.

He also had pneumonia.

As his condition deteriorated yesterday, he was put on life support after which he passed away.

Born in Manikganj's Harirampur, Jane Alam started singing soon after the Liberation War ended.

He gained popularity after his first album, "Bonmali".

The artiste, inspired by Azam Khan, went on to
