

Probe if he's the right one jailed

HC asks for judicial enquiry into man serving time for mistaken identity

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The High Court yesterday directed the authorities concerned to launch a judicial enquiry into the allegation that an innocent man has been in jail instead of a convict in a drugs case.

The man in jail is Manik Hawlader while the convict is Manik Mia of Shariatpur's Bhedarganj upazila. Hawlader, who claims to be innocent, has been in Sirajganj jail since he was arrested on November 28, 2020.

The HC ordered the chief judicial magistrate (CJM) of Shariatpur to conduct the enquiry in order to identify the actual accused of the case and to submit the probe report to the HC in 30 days.

Special Tribunal-1 of Sirajganj and its jail superintendent have been asked to assist the chief judicial magistrate conduct the probe.

The HC also issued a rule asking its respondents to explain why the arrest of Manik Hawlader and his imprisonment without verification of the names, addresses and other details of both the men should not be declared illegal.

In the rule, the court asked them to explain why they should not be directed to release Manik Hawlader from jail, Deputy Attorney General Tushar Kanti Roy told The Daily Star.

'I appeal to all, no lip service please'

Foreign minister urges int'l community about Rohingya repatriation

DIPLOMATIC CORRESPONDENT

Foreign Minister AK Abdul Momen has appealed to the international community to work sincerely, instead of paying "lip service" for repatriation of the Rohingyas to Myanmar.

"There are 1.1 million Rohingyas in camps in Bangladesh. The majority of them are girls and women. It's time for the world leaders to come forward to help repatriate and reintegrate them in Rakhine and give them a future," he said yesterday.

The minister was addressing an event titled "Women in Diplomacy: How are We Doing?" at the Foreign Service Academy in the capital, marking the International Women's Day. It was organised by the Diplomatic Correspondents' Association of Bangladesh (DCAB) with the support of the Bangabandhu Research Centre for Foreign Policy and Diplomacy.

'We could not fulfil people's expectations'

Says outgoing ACC chief

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The Anti-Corruption Commission could not completely fulfil people's expectations regarding curbing graft, outgoing ACC Chairman Iqbal Mahmood said yesterday.

"People have high expectations from the ACC... I am leaving office with dissatisfaction that we could not fulfil people's expectations to that level," he said.

Iqbal was addressing a views-exchange meeting with the media at the ACC headquarters in the capital's Segunbagicha before a farewell ceremony.

Iqbal said he carried out

600 miners march off coalmine

Cite being confined to Barapukuria coalmine site for months, and poor living, working conditions

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Dinajpur

Over 600 miners of Barapukuria Coal Mining Company Limited in Dinajpur left the project area Sunday night protesting against unbearable working conditions.

They alleged that their Chinese employer forced them to stay inside the project area despite the poor living conditions there and tortured them in the name of maintaining health safety.

Their departure affected coal production in Parbatipur upazila of Dinajpur, which supplies coal to Barapukuria Coal-fired 525MW Power
