Seasonally soothing, fashionably SUBLIME

She wears a cotton sari, and puts joba blooms as earrings. The soft rays of the sun gently cuddling with blooming flowers portray a play of late-spring with early-summer. This embarks a soothing weather, bringing us calm, joy and gleeful energy. The changing season allows the blend of fashion with utmost comfort. Our beloved deshi attires get the chance to be adored a step further as we comfortably style them on different occasions. In the spirit of this mid-season mood, let's show-off our love for traditional-wears as we mingle them with vivid hues.
