

A large, stylized graphic of the number '50' in teal and orange, with the words 'Years of Independence' in a similar color scheme below it. The entire graphic is set against a background of various illustrations representing different aspects of Bangladesh: a modern building, a train, a person using a laptop, a person holding a smartphone, a person holding a bundle of wheat, a tractor, a bridge, a satellite, a mosque, a church, a factory, a person in a suit, and a person in a green shirt. The background is a light blue gradient with a subtle pattern of small white dots.

50 Years of Independence

Today's independent Bangladesh is moving forward step by step on the path shown by Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman after winning the bloodshed war of 1971.
In this age of digitalization, on the golden jubilee of independence, Alesha Mart is proud to be a part of the future development of Bangladesh.
