QUOTES we adore

All of us love quotes, whether it is inspirational or something that's just cute enough to keep in the social media timeline. Quotes keep us connected, motivated, and social. While most of these 'one-liners' are quite catchy, we particularly love the fashion-based ones, which give us a sneak peek into fashion's past, present, and future.

Here, we share some of the world-famous quotes by global fashion icons.

COCO CHANEL

You know you love Coco Chanel, now you will learn to love her quotes as well; witty, smart and inspirational like the diva herself.

"Fashion is not something that exists in dresses only. Fashion is in the sky, in the street; fashion has to do with ideas, the way we live, what is happening."

"A girl should be two things: classy and fabulous."
