

Words THAT SCREAM style

CARRIE BRADSHAW

Any fans of Sex and the City here? Then here are some that will immediately put you on nostalgia train.

"They say nothing lasts forever. Dreams change, trends come and go, but friendships never go out of style!"

"Every year, women leave their pasts behind and look forward to the future... this is known as Fashion Week!"

RALPH LAUREN

If you say you don't know him, then we surely can't be friends anymore! His classic clothing, like the signature polo shirts, reign the world as classics. His creations are a must-have by true fashionistas and his timeless fragrances are global standard— items to die for.

"For me, style is about quality, integrity and timelessness. It is free of trends but always feels fresh and new."

"Personal style is about taking a risk, trying something unexpected, and having fun with fashion, but always being true to yourself."

AUDREY HEPBURN

Personally, I don't think I have ever seen any actress be so perfectly styled. She is the epitome of grace, beauty and sophistication. A woman as classy as her can only offer quotes that are worth storing in the book of memories.

"Life is a party. Dress like it."

"Elegance is the only beauty that never fades."

KARL LAGERFELD

You want to discuss some big-time collaborations, Karl Lagerfeld is your man. From being the creator of world-famous CC monograph, to owning links with big brands such as Diesel and H&M. This magician of a designer produced brilliant haute couture during his time.

"I want everyone to wear what they want and mix it in their own way. That, to me, is what is modern."

"Fashion is a language that creates itself in clothes to interpret reality."
