UPAZILA HEALTH COMPLEXES NEAR BORDER Underequipped for Covid surge

STAR REPORT

Debhata in Satkhira is separated from the district of 24 Parganas in India by the Ichamati river. The ban on international travel between the two countries does not stop Debhata's local fry-catchers from swimming to the spots where they find the best Bagda prawn, regardless of whether they are in Bangladesh or in India.

Locals from 24 Parganas do the same, and they meet where the waters of the Ichamati apparently wash away all notions of political boundaries.

And that is what worries one of the doctors of Debhata Upazila Health Complex, Md Abdul Latif.

In a district where Covid-19 positivity rate is 25 percent -- more than double that the national positivity rate -- Latif's health centre is woefully underprepared.

"We have 16 oxygen cylinders, but the reason why that is a problem is because we can use eight at a time. We do not have any method of refilling oxygen cylinders in Satkhira, so we have to send the cylinders to Jashore. We send eight at a time. We leave them at Jashore, and go back with the other 8 when they are empty," he said.

They are also facing a potentially impending crisis of the Indian strain of the Sars-Cov-2 virus without adequate protection for their healthcare workers.

"With regards to PPE, we are doing alright. We have around 300 PPE left from last year, but we do not have any N95 or KN95 masks. But we will manage to serve of course," Latif said.

The Supply Chain Management Portal of the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare shows that the

41 more die, 1,765 new cases in 24 hours

Researchers predict another peak in mid-July

MOUDUD AHMED SUJAN

With the number of Covid-19 new cases rising every day over last several days, a team of researchers said Bangladesh may observe another peak of novel coronavirus infection in mid-July.

They projected that the daily cases might reach the highest -- 9,698 -- on July 11, if the test figure increases to 50,000 daily.

If the government's test capacity remains as it is, the new cases may be 7,743 on that day.

Since mid-May, daily new cases and deaths started rising steadily following a downward trend from the latest peak

BUDGET 2021-22

Tax cut galore in next budget

REJAUL KARIM BYRON

"Cuts, cuts, cuts!" -- would be the chorus of Finance Minister AHM Mustafa Kamal's third budget speech that he is due to deliver in the parliament tomorrow.

The budget, which is coming off the back of a stalled economic recovery thanks to the second wave of COVID-19 cases, will look to revive the tremendous growth momentum that has made Bangladesh the wealthiest nation in the Indian subcontinent in per capita terms.

And the cynosure would be on fuelling domestic consumption meaningfully and generating employment, and Kamal is hoping to achieve that by a mixed bag of tax cut, holiday and exemption.

The measure that would draw the most cheers would be the 2.5 percentage points slash in corporate tax, a longstanding demand of the private sector, which has become all the more pertinent in jumpstarting the economic locomotive.

At present, the corporate tax range from 25 percent to 45 percent.

The one-person company law would be implemented from the next fiscal year, and the corporate tax for such companies has been fixed at 25 percent.

The most adventurous fiscal measure in the budget for fiscal 2021-22 would be a tax holiday for 10 years for manufacturing import-substitute

FY21 NATIONAL BUDGET A missed opportunity

REJAUL KARIM BYRON and MD FAZLUR RAHMAN

The government in last year's budget gave priority to several crucial sectors to protect people and their livelihoods amid the pandemic, but it could not achieve the desired results due to the Covid second wave and hurdles in implementing its initiatives.

Finance Minister AHM Mustafa Kamal put the fight against the virus and the economic recovery at the heart of the budget for fiscal 2020-21.

As expected, he gave priority to health, agriculture, social protection, and job creation and retention as the country was facing an unprecedented crisis.

Kamal went for an expansionary budget that would see the deficit go past the comfortable level of 5 percent. Funds were allocated to the ministries and divisions to meet regular and emergency needs so that the country could pull itself out of the crisis.

He also prioritised development projects, closed loss-making jute and sugar mills, and cut non-essential public expenditures to save money for a rainy day.

The economy reopened in the very month he placed the budget after a two-

Pfizer vaccine roll-out in Dhaka next week

6 lakh Sinopharm jabs due in 7-10 days

MOHAMMAD AL-MASUM MOLLA

The government will start administering Pfizer Covid-19 vaccine at four vaccination centres in the capital from next week.

"Those who have already completed registration and waiting to be vaccinated will get the jabs. The Pfizer vaccine will only be administered in Dhaka city," Health Minister Zahid Maleque told The Daily Star yesterday.

The four designated vaccination centres include Kurmitola General Hospital and Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujib Medical University (BSMMU), said the minister.

A consignment of 106,000 doses of the Pfizer vaccine reached Dhaka on Monday. The government received the vaccine under the global vaccine-sharing initiative COVAX.

Health officials said as Pfizer vaccine requires about negative 70 degrees Celsius storage, it will not be sent outside the capital. The required temperature is far below the normal refrigeration levels.

ACC probe finds TB Hospital former, current deputy directors involved in irregularities

MAHBUBUR RAHMAN KHAN

A steel almirah typically costs about Tk 23,000, but the authorities of the 250-bed TB Hospital in the capital bought 100 such items at Tk 96,000 each, according to an Anti-

The authorities also purchased 19 essential pieces of medical equipment for the hospital at exaggerated prices in 2018.

In the enquiry, the details of which were revealed yesterday, the ACC found that the hospital's former deputy director and current deputy director misappropriated around Tk 4.46 crore of public money in collaboration with suppliers.
