BracU to continue financial assistance

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Brac University (BracU) is going to continue financially assisting its students for another semester (fall 2021).

BracU is continuing to financially support its students for the fifth consecutive semester during the pandemic, said a university statement yesterday.

The university will also offer instalment options for students who have been affected by the pandemic.

This initiative started last year, as a response to the Covid-19 crisis, it added.

Considering the Covid-19 situation and its socio-economic impact, BracU Vice Chancellor Prof Vincent Chang announced the decision. "We are committed to keep the students at the centre of all our initiatives, and we shall do the best in our capacity to support our students in this challenging situation," said Chang.

Brac University has already provided a total of Tk 93 crore as financial assistance and scholarship to students over the last four semesters.

The Cumilla University authorities started holding in-person examinations from yesterday morning, maintaining health guidelines.

The exams in the first shift started at 10am, said Md Nurul Karim Chowdhury, controller of examinations of the university.

Exams of 11 departments of the university -- five of honours, six of masters -- were held in two shifts, he said.

"We have issued exam schedules of 18 semesters -- 13 honours, 15 masters," the controller said, adding that the authorities have taken all preparations regarding holding the tests.

Dalilur Rahman, registrar (in-charge), had issued a circular on Wednesday containing seven instructions to follow during the exam. Those include wearing masks, no entry of outsiders on campus, maintaining distance, no loitering on campus or holding public gatherings.

The university was closed on March 17, 2020 and took attempts to hold exams on December 20, 2020 and June 13, 2021 but failed due to coronavirus.

RESCUED FROM MEDITERRANEAN
30 Bangladeshis return home

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Thirty Bangladeshis, who were rescued from the Mediterranean while trying to cross the sea illegally to reach Italy recently, returned home from Tunisia yesterday.

A Turkish Airways flight carrying them landed at Hazrat Shahjalal International Airport in the capital around noon.

Fakhrul Alam, assistant director of the Expatriates' Welfare Desk set up by the government at the airport, confirmed their arrival. He said most of the returnees are young.

Brac Migration Programme, in a media release, said it provided immediate support such as food and water to the returnees with help from the expatriates' welfare desk.

Quoting some of the returnees, Brac Migration Programme head Shariful Hasan said the Bangladeshis went to Dubai on visit visa at the beginning of this year. Later, they reached Tunisia via Libya.

They were rescued from the Mediterranean while trying to reach Italy, Shariful said.

Muslim women everywhere are oppressed and require 'saviours,'" it said.

"Nonetheless, given the Taliban's history in Afghanistan, we are deeply concerned that advances made in the arena of gender and sexual rights, particularly in relation to bodily integrity, autonomy, education and work, will be eroded by the new regime."

The struggle against narratives that serve the interests of imperialism cannot be used to deflect attention from legitimate concerns about the oppression of women and minorities, said the statement.

"Given that these concerns are based on the Taliban's historical track record, they cannot be denied, dismissed or excluded from any future narrative of Taliban rule," it added.

"We will continue to observe, closely, the unfolding situation in Afghanistan and to use our collective resources to demonstrate our support for and solidarity with our sisters and the minority communities of Afghanistan, including their rights to involvement in the drafting and framing of policies, laws and socio-political systems of governance."

"Should there be any attempts to suppress or oppress them, as a collective, we pledge that we will not stand idly by and allow their voices and their dreams to be silenced," said the statement.

Says alleged victim's wife

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Noakhali

Noakhali's Basurhat municipality mayor Abdul Quader Mirza and his followers allegedly abducted and assaulted a local Jatiya Party leader on Wednesday.

Md Saiful Islam Swapon, general secretary of JP's Companiganj upazila unit, is undergoing treatment at a Dhaka hospital.

"Quader Mirza and his followers hit my husband's head and broke his legs and hands," claimed Saiful's wife Nazma Islam, also a member from women's reserved seat of the upazila's Charfakira union parishad.

Saiful's son Moinul Islam Shaon alleged that Quader Mirza, also younger brother of Awami League General Secretary Obaidul Quader, along with his followers abducted Saiful from Basurhat Bazar area around 5pm on Wednesday. Then, they took Saiful to a room on the second floor of the municipal building.

On information, Saiful's family and local JP men rushed there and rescued him. He was then taken to a local health complex. As his condition deteriorated, he was shifted to Dhaka early yesterday, Shaon added.

Contacted, JP's Companiganj upazila unit president Abdul Latif said he went to the municipal building around 10pm that day and took Saiful out of the building.

He, however, said he did not see Quader Mirza there and refused to talk further about the incident.

Mirza could not be contacted over phone for his comment. However, Mirza's personal assistant Hamid Ullah, who is also general secretary of Jubo League's Basurhat unit, denied the allegations.

Contacted, OC Md Saifuddin Anwar of Companiganj Police Station said he heard that Mirza only scolded Saiful, but he did not get information of assault.

No one filed a police complaint till 7pm yesterday.
