

188 hospitalised with dengue

STAFF CORRESPONDENT
At least 188 patients were hospitalised in the last 24 hours till 8am yesterday...

Migrant workers queued up in front of the Dhaka Medical College Hospital to get their jobs yesterday. An unusually hot day even by the capital's standards, they had to go through considerable stress, having to stand under the sun for hours before making it inside the hospital.

AMI PROBASHI APP 5 lakh migrant workers sign up for Covid job

STAFF CORRESPONDENT
About five lakh migrant workers have registered through the Ami Probashi app to get inoculated for Covid-19...

Table with 2 columns: Feature, Details. Rows include: Govt earned Tk 10cr from app registration fees; Workers must sign up with BMET before registering on Surokkha app; Must pay a registration fee of Tk 200; App ensures hassle-free service; With the app, aspirants can enrol with 64 training centres.

Polls must be held under neutral govt

Says Fakhrul
STAFF CORRESPONDENT
BNP secretary general Mirza Fakhrul Islam Alamgir yesterday warned that his party will not accept any general election in the country if it is not held under a neutral government.

No more caretaker govt: Quader

BSS, Dhaka
Awami League General Secretary Obaidul Quader yesterday said BNP is now unwilling to take part in the polls and that is why they kept their politics limited to mass media and social media, avoiding the political field as well as streets.

TEJTURI BAZAR BLAST One succumbs to injuries

STAFF CORRESPONDENT
A resident, who was injured in an explosion at a building in the capital's Tejgaon East Tejguri Bazar on Friday night, died early yesterday while undergoing treatment at Sheikh Hasina National Institute of Burn and Plastic Surgery.

Provide students with psychological support

Say speakers on reintegrating them into classrooms
STAFF CORRESPONDENT
Students returning to schools following 18 months of closure should be provided with proper mental health support to reintegrate them into the classrooms, academics said yesterday.

DU 'Kha' unit exam held across country

Table with 1 column: Admission for 2020-21. Rows include: 47,639 vied for 2,378 'Kha' unit seats; 18,853 participated from the capital; Rest of the divisional cities hosted 28,786.

DU CORRESPONDENT
All eight divisional cities of the country played host to Dhaka University's (DU) 'Kha' unit (Faculty of Arts) admission test for the 2020-21 academic year yesterday.

'He wrote to change the world for the better'

Says Serajul Islam Choudhury on Abul Mansur Ahmad

STAFF CORRESPONDENT
Abul Mansur Ahmad has explained the world in his own way. He thought and wrote about the world in all its complexities -- exploring politics, economics and literature -- and envisioned how to create changes for the better...

Awardees of the essay competition on eminent writer-historian Abul Mansur Ahmad along with dignitaries at the capital's The Daily Star Centre yesterday. At the event, organised by Abul Mansur Ahmad Smriti Parishad, a total of ten youths received prizes under three categories.

Prachyanat performed their landmark play, 'Circus Circus', at the Ganga Jamuna Cultural Festival yesterday. The festival's ninth instalment, which kicked off on Friday at Bangladesh Shilpakala Academy and will conclude on October 12, features renowned and promising theatre troupes from all over the country.

Rabindra University students call off protest

Unlock admin building following education minister's assurance
OUR CORRESPONDENT, Pabna
Students of Sirajganj's Rabindra University yesterday withdrew their movement for demanding termination of teacher Farhana Yeasmin Baten, following 'education minister's assurance'.

Follow Gandhi, Bangabandhu's ideology

Law minister urges all
OUR CORRESPONDENT, Noakhali
Law Minister Anisul Huq yesterday urged all to follow the ideology and messages of Mahatma Gandhi and Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman to maintain peace and harmony in society.

If their footprint and ideology of non-violence can be followed, peace will be restored in society and the state. ANISUL HUQ