Citizens march into the streets protesting recent communal violence

STAR REPORT

People of the country's capital and port city stepped into the streets yet again yesterday to question authorities' role in ensuring security and demand an end to the communal attacks.

At a protest rally in the port city, leaders of Bangladesh Puja Udjapan Parishad said attempts to uproot Hindus from the country will never work, as such efforts will face heavy resistance.

They demanded punishment for the culprits through a speedy trial tribunal.

"We will resist. Bangladesh will oppose the culprits," said Nirmal Chatterjee, general secretary of the parishad, at the rally, organised by Bangladesh Puja Udjapan Committee's Chattogram city unit, at Anderkilla Intersection.

Nirmal asked why the administration failed to ensure safety for puja mandaps, and houses and establishments of Hindus, despite its assurance.

Milan Kanti Dutta, president of the parishad, said no trial over such attacks have been completed. "This time, 24,000 were accused in different cases throughout the country. But trials cannot be held for all 24,000."

Milan said one Iqbal Hossain was arrested over the Cumilla incident, but police and administration termed him "mentally ill" and a vagabond, and the media joined in to propagate that.

Hillol Sen Ujjwal, general secretary of Bangladesh Puja Udjapan Parishad's Chattogram city unit, spoke among others, with the parishad's city unit president Ashish Bhattacharjee in the chair.

Earlier in the day, several thousands gathered at Anderkilla Intersection, held a procession and shouted slogans, demanding trial and punishment of the culprits.

Demands, slogans and placards filled the capital's Central Shaheed Minar yesterday, as around 500 people and 50 organisations participated in a rally, organised under the banner of "Shampriti Bangladesh", to reiterate their demands for justice centring the recent communal attacks on the Hindu community.

DHAKA AIRPORT Gold worth over Tk 8cr found in plane

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Customs Intelligence and Investigation Directorate (CIID) seized 12kg of gold, worth around Tk 8.44 crore, from an aircraft at Hazrat Shahjalal International Airport in Dhaka on Sunday night.

Around 104 gold bars were found wrapped in Scotch tape -- hidden inside three belts made of fabric.

A team of CIID found the belts abandoned at the cargo hold of BG-4148, after it landed from Dubai at the airport around 9:15pm, said CIID Director General Abdur Rofiq at a press briefing at his office yesterday.

The smugglers had planned to dodge taxes and take the gold out of the airport later on, he said, adding none were arrested in this connection.

The matter is being investigated, he said.

BNP now only exists online

Says Quader

BSS, Dhaka

Road Transport and Bridges Minister Obaidul Quader yesterday termed BNP as an isolated party and said it is BNP, not Awami League, that is on the brink of bankruptcy, as the party is in fear of elections, and people have no belief in their capacity to hold any demonstration.

"BNP has no existence on the street. It exists only online, including on Facebook," he said.

Ruling out the possibility of a situation like one-eleven recurring in the country, he said BNP is dreaming of another one-eleven, when the army-backed caretaker government declared state of emergency for two years after the BNP regime in 2006.

"BNP is expecting one more one-eleven... but it will not take place again in the country," he said.

AL behind recent communal attacks

Alleges Gayeshwar

UNB, Dhaka

BNP senior leader Gayeshwar Chandra Roy yesterday alleged that the ruling party leaders and activists were directly involved in the recent communal violence as part of a "blueprint of the government".

"We visited some temples that came under attack and talked to eyewitnesses and people concerned. The direct involvement of the leaders and activists of Awami League, Jubo League and Chhatra League in these attacks can be found through a proper investigation," he said.

Gayeshwar, the chief of the committee formed by BNP to look into the sectarian violence, came up with the remarks at a press conference at BNP's Nayapalton central office. The committee earlier inspected some violence-hit areas.

Students confine 30 staffers for 7 hours

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Palma

Students of Rabindra University confined its registrar, teachers and officials for at least seven hours till early yesterday, demanding termination of teacher Farhana Yeasmin Baten.

The students confined around 30 staffers on Sunday evening to a room when a team went to talk to them to settle the issue.

They released the registrar, teachers and officials when some of them said that they were feeling unwell.

Termining the confinement "inhuman", Md Rawshon Alo, proctor in-charge of the university, said, "The students confined us to a room for seven to eight hours. They unlocked the door when one of the teachers fell sick around 1:30am," Rawshon said.

The students have been continuing protests, demanding removal of Farhana Yeasmin, former chairman of the department of cultural heritage and Bangladesh studies department, who was accused of forcibly cutting the hair of 14 students.

On September 26, Farhana asked the university employees to cut the hair of the students who had long hair before they entered examination halls. One of the students tried to die by suicide following the incident.

Amid student protest, the university authorities formed a five-member probe committee headed by Laila Fardous, chairman of the Rabindra Studies department, on September 28. The probe body on October 21 submitted its report against Farhana.

On October 23, a section of students started a hunger strike as no decision was made about the termination of Farhana at the SEE PAGE 4 COL 3
