Yesterday was another workday for the garment workers of the capital's Mirpur-14, or so they thought. After reaching their workplace, they found the factory gates shut. Some displayed signs to inform the workers, inset, while authorities of some factories did not even bother. According to the workers, factories in Mirpur-14 and surrounding areas have been closed without notice, and so, they were left puzzled in the morning. This situation possibly resulted from the protest for salary hike and other demands.

Attacked by fishermen Injured cop dies at hospital

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A policeman, who was injured in an attack by fishermen while enforcing a ban on hilsa fishing in October, died at a city hospital on Wednesday night. Kabir Hossain (42), a constable of River Police, died at the National Institute of Neurosciences & Hospital. He was receiving treatment there for over a month, a press release issued by Police Headquarters said yesterday. Kabir along with four other policemen was injured when local fishermen reportedly attacked them at Char Abdullahpur in Munshiganj on October 21, when a ban on hilsa fishing was going on. Hailing from Patuakhali, Kabir left behind his wife, a son and a daughter to mourn his death. Meanwhile, Inspector General of Police Benazir Ahmed expressed deep shock at the death.

Petition seeks Tk 10cr compensation for Sadia's death

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A writ petition has been filed with the High Court, seeking its directive on the authorities concerned, to give Tk 10 crore as compensation to the family of university student, Sehrin Mahbub Sadia, who died after falling into an open roadside drain in Chattogram city in September. Rights organisations Ain O Salish Kendra (ASK), Children's Charity Bangladesh (CCB) Foundation and Sadia's maternal uncle Zahid Uddin Belal submitted the petition through their lawyer Aneek R Haque to the HC yesterday. The petitioners requested the HC to direct the city corporation authorities to ensure sufficient safety measures at all their construction sites across the country to prevent. They also mentioned Sadia died due to the negligence of Chattogram City Corporation. Lawyer Aneek R Haque told The Daily Star that the HC may hold hearing on the petition next Sunday. Deceased Sadia (19) was a first-year honours student of computer sciences at International Islamic University Chittagong. She died after falling into a roadside drain in the port city's Agrabad Badamtoli area on September 27 this year. Divers of Fire Service and Civil Defence recovered her body around five hours after she fell, some 100 feet away from the spot.

Uphold CHT regulation

"We have noticed that a vested quarter is making different attempts to raise questions afresh about the CHT Regulation, 1900, although the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court has already disposed the issue," it said. According to the apex court verdict, the CHT Regulation, 1900 is not contradictory to the constitution and therefore, the government did not scrap the regulation. Arrest warrant issued against Rizvi, 7 others

COURT CORRESPONDENT

A Dhaka court yesterday issued arrest warrants against eight leaders and activists of BNP, including its senior joint secretary general Ruhul Kabir Rizvi, in a case filed under the Special Powers Act. After accepting charges against 33 accused, Judge KM Emrul Kayesh of the Metropolitan Sessions Judge's Court passed the order and directed the OC of Badda Police Station to submit a report by February 22. Former Dhaka City Corporation councillor MA Quyum is among the fugitives. BNP leader Shamsur Rahman Shimul Biswas and 24 others are now on bail in the case. According to prosecution, Rizvi-led BNP leaders and activists brought out a procession on January 26, 2015 in support of hartal in Badda. They threw brickbats, crude bombs on police that left several injured.

been possible to establish women's human rights yet. "Despite various women's movements, human rights movements and various public-private initiatives to prevent violence against women, the incidents continue to rise at an alarming rate, further fuelled by the pandemic," she added. BMP president Fauzia Moslem said in order to stop violence against women, the socio-cultural norms need to be challenged. "We have to end the culture of impunity, build a sensitive judiciary for women, and reform the existing laws. Although the rape law has been amended, it is not widely publicised, and its application is limited," she said. Maleka Banu, general secretary of the central committee of the organisation, Sima Moslem, joint general secretary, BMP, Advocate Masuda Rehana Begum, assistant general secretary of BMP, legal aid secretary Sahana Kabir, among others, spoke at the event, moderated by the organisation's lawyer Advocate Dipti Sikder.
