STAFF CORRESPONDENT

An SC lawyer yesterday filed a petition with the HC seeking its directive on the government to stop use of explosive substances during new year celebrations.

Advocate Mizanur Rahman submitted the petition and requested the government to give compensation to the family of Umair, a six-month old child at Mirpur, who reportedly died after being frightened at the sound of fireworks at night on December 31 last year.

Fish caught from deep-sea is first brought ashore on large trawlers. From there, they're kept at cold storages and later taken to markets all around the country. This photo was taken from the port city's Karnaphuli Ghat yesterday.

Anvir and seven others were accused in the case filed over the rape and murder of a college student in the capital's Gulshan.

Yesterday was the sixth time the PBI failed to submit the probe report, court officials said.

The other accused are Shah Alam's wife Afroza Begum, Anvir's wife Sabrina Sayem, model Faria Mahbub Piyasha, Saifa Rahman Mim, Ibrahim Ahmed Ripon and his wife Sharmin.

On April 26, police recovered the body of a 21-year-old college student in a Gulshan flat. Her elder sister then filed a case with Gulshan Police Station, accusing Anvir of abetting suicide.

'Children first'

HC observes in full-text verdict

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The High Court in the full text of a verdict has observed that children's welfare should be considered first, and law should not be applied in relevant cases without their welfare and wellbeing.

"Thus, in respect to the applicability of the 'Comity of Courts' it is our considered view that the child's welfare and wellbeing should be considered first and the above proposition of law should not be applied in each and every case mechanically without considering the wellbeing and welfare of the minors," said the HC bench of Justice M Enayetur Rahim (now a judge of the Appellate Division) and Justice Md Mostafizur Rahman in the full text of judgements.

The full text was released yesterday as the HC bench delivered the verdict on November 21 last year in a case regarding the custody of children Nakano Jasmine Malika (11) and Nakano Laila Lina (9), who were brought from Japan to Bangladesh in February last year.
