officer post from the police cadre to ensure security and legal support to the Bangladesh expatriates.

A liaison officer would be able to assist and process the file for those often stuck in different countries after becoming victims of human trafficking, they said.

They would also be able to look at other security issues as well, they added.

On the issue, IGP Benazir said, "We want the liaison officer not as a diplomatic post." He requested the foreign secretary to make it a "supportive post".

Benazir further said that the main job of the police is to maintain security. Thus, the post of DG Security should also be given to police, he said.

About the demand for a liaison officer, Foreign Secretary Masud Bin Momen said that he would now look into the issue with utmost priority.

The secretary, however, did not make any comments on the "community content" and DG security post during the meeting on Monday, sources confirmed.

Masud said vested quarters both from home and abroad are spreading propagandas against the members of the country's law enforcement agencies.
