Contacted, Upazila Agriculture Officer Najiat Ahmed said this disease has appeared due to use of too much pesticides and this year's unfavourable weather.

"We have advised the farmers on how to deal with this and are trying to diagnose the disease by examining the affected plants with agronomists."

"Last week, arranged a meeting with two hundred farmers to discuss their issues and advise them on several aspects of it," she said. "If the weather improves, the disease may subside a bit," she added.

"Besides, we are working provide financial assistance to the affected rose growers through upazila administration and government funds," she
