Two pistols smuggled from Italy seized in Ctg

Arms were imported as household goods

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Customs officials vesterday seized two pistols and 60 bullets smuggled through postal service in Chattogram from Italy, in the name of importing household goods.

The officials also recovered two other pistols, deemed fake, inside the consignment that arrived at the foreign post office section of Chattogram Customs, said Mohammad Salahuddin Rizvi, deputy commissioner of the customs.

The official said they found the weapons hidden in the carton along with frying pans, drill machines, glass, soaps and chocolate.

"Two of the four pistols were initially thought to be toys and made of plastic. Law enforcement will ascertain the matter," he said.

According to customs documents, the parcel was sent from Rome by a Bangladeshi expatriate named Rajib Barua.

It was supposed to be delivered to one Mozumdar Kamrul Hasan from the port city's CGS Colony.

When this newspaper called the mobile number mentioned on the carton. One Nuruddin received it from Chatkhil, Noakhali.

However, he told this correspondent that he is unaware of the consignment. This correspondent also visited the address given on the package, but Kamrul Hasan was not available.

Neighbours said Kamrul is working with the income tax office of customs and has been residing at the area for 30 years. He also has some construction-related business.

His wife Umme Salma said Rajib Barua Muna is her husband's friend. Before going abroad, Rajib also lived in this colony.

She said she knew that they were supposed to get some chocolate, shampoo, oil and soap from him but she did not know anything about the weapons.

The deputy commissioner said the weapons will be handed over to police. Filing of a case was underway, he added.

forgotten by the authorities, who had promised them compensation and other aid. The families said they have heard reports of 30 private banks donating Tk 40 crore to the government's national relief fund, but they are yet to see any of it.

"Following the incident, 21 affected families received cleaning jobs from the city corporations, while four families got Tk 2 lakh," said Ashiq Uddin Sainik, secretary of a collective of victims' families.

"Four others were told they would receive jobs befitting their higher studies degrees. They were asked to check back after a while, but then the city corporation ceased all communication with them," alleged Sainik.

Beyond a lump sum of Tk 20,000, given when the bodies were handed over from the morgue, most of the families haven't received any other kind of support. Like the last two, this anniversary too passed with the families' demands unmet, leading them to question how much longer
