a state, a nation," said Professor Emeritus Serajul Islam Choudhury while chairing a discussion on the university and its alumni. Meanwhile, the alumni association chose 100 posthumous alumni in 16 categories to honour, which include former VCs, politicians, educationists, martyrs of the Language Movement, intellectuals martyred during the Liberation War, philosophers, cultural activists, poets, writers, journalists.

day-long The programme was inaugurated at 10:00am with the national anthem, hoisting of the flag, and cultural presentations.

The oldest alumni to join the programme, 92-yearold Matiul Islam, served as the chief guest. Matiul was a Pakistan-era government employee who was forced to retire by then President Yahya Khan regime with different false corruption charges. He later re-joined the government as the first finance secretary.

"To join as chief guest here is the greatest reward I have achieved in my journey," he said.

Conducted by DUAA secretary general Ranjan Karmaker, the programme was presided over by its president AK Azad.

Among others, Prime Minister's adviser Towfiqe-Elahi Chowdhury, Education Minister Dipu Moni, former minister Matia Chowdhury, politician Inam Ahmed Chowdhury, educationist Hamida Åkhtar Begum, and cultural personality Ramendu Majumder joined the programme.

Delays, rising approval is increasing, the ADB document reads.

It mentioned that delays in approving revised DPP caused a one-year delay in implementing the BRT project and SASEC Road Connectivity Project-1.

Under the BRT project, the government is building a dedicated bus corridor from Dhaka airport to Gazipur, while a 70-km road from Gazipur to Alenga was expanded to four lanes under the SASEC-1 project.

The document mentions land acquisition and resettlement (LAS) is a major reason why transport projects require time extensions, mentioning that for the Akhaura-Laksam Double Track project, Chattogram-Cox's Bazar Rail Link project, SASEC-1 and SASEC-2, LAS took a considerably long time.

Frequent changes project directors, understaffed project implementation unit, coordination lack of among consultants and contractors are delaying project implementation.

ADB gave similar observations in its previous documents prepared for (TPRM) meetings of 2015 and 2016. RHD is currently implementing 185 projects, of which more than 80 were revised in the last fiscal year. BR is implementing 37 projects, of which 26 have already been revised at least once.

SOLUTIONS ADB The suggested strengthening capacity of implementing agencies to improve quality of project designs, cost estimates and procurement packaging.

It also called streamlining government approval process of consulting, recruitment procurement. The line ministries and Planning Commission have take necessary measures to reduce time for DPP, revised DPP, TAPP and Mokabbir Khan executive president Gonoforum, alleged people of Montu's faction, who were expelled, deliberately attacked them.

About 15 leaders and activists of Gonoforum, including Mokabbir, were injured. Montu, president of a faction, denied the allegations.

Chowdhury, Subrata general secretary of the Montu-led faction, said their people were carrying out the programme in a peaceful manner. All of a sudden, some people loyal to Mokabbir attacked them.

"We have organised the council in a democratic manner," Mokabbir told reporters before leaving the auditorium.

"This was a scheduled programme. But some miscreants have attacked the council and injured many, including me.," he also said.
