

Although the government had created walkways on the bank of Turag for pedestrians, the passage now serves the purpose of anchoring in large boats that carry cement. On top of that, due to the authorities' lack of monitoring, shops and trucks now occupy the space beside the walkway, leaving its purpose of easing travel for commuters unfulfilled. This photo was taken in Dhaka's Aminbazar area near Gabtoli recently.

Two killed in road crashes

STAR REPORT

Two people were killed and another was injured in road accidents in two districts yesterday.

In Bogura, a lawyer was killed after an oncoming truck hit his motorbike in Kahaloo area. The accident occurred on Bogura-Dupchanchia road.

The victim – Mahbubur Rahman Faruk (65) from Dupchanchia upazila – was an assistant public prosecutor.

In Rajbari, easy bike driver Rajab Bappari (35) was killed and another injured as the auto-rickshaw and a truck collided head-on on Dhaka-Khulna highway.

Govt to amend Food Safety Act

Officials tell discussion

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The government is planning to amend Food Safety Act-2013 to regulate all types of food businesses, officials said yesterday.

The amendment will help prevent wastage of food and ensure ethical promotion of food products, said Rezaul Karim, a member of National Food Safety Authority (BFSA), at a discussion held at Jatiya Press Club.

“We have been working to amend the existing law to bring food businesses under regulation,” he said.

Gen-lab, a youth-based social enterprise, and H&H International Foundation organised the discussion.

Speakers said per capita food wastage in the country is around 75 kg annually, according to Food Waste Index. The majority of the food is wasted at restaurants. There are around 60,000 restaurateurs registered with Bangladesh Restaurant Owners Association.

Brig Gen (retd) M Sakawat Hossain, a former election commissioner, said, “There is a need for awareness programmes, especially in educational institutions.”

Gaibandha-1 MP Shamim Haider Patwari stressed on ensuring safe food. “The state must control food system. To do this, the government can work with private sector.”

Sylhet remembers nine Liberation War martyrs

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Sylhet

Nine people – including Dr Shamsuddin Ahmed and three of his colleagues, who were brutally killed by the Pakistani army in 1971 – were remembered in Sylhet yesterday.

Shamsuddin was a doctor of then Sylhet Medical College Hospital. He did not leave the hospital after the Liberation War started, and treated injured freedom fighters there.

On April 9 in 1971, freedom fighters attacked a Pakistan army convoy near the hospital.

After the incident, a group of Pakistani troops cordoned off the hospital and killed Dr Shamsuddin, Dr Shyamol Kanti Lala, nurse Mahmudur Rahman, ambulance driver Korban Ali and five others present there.

They were buried beside the hospital, and the site was later declared as Martyred Intellectuals' Graveyard of Sylhet.

After independence, Shaheed Shamsuddin Ahmed Hospital was established there and the medical college hospital was relocated to Kajalshah area.

Yesterday, people from different walks of life paid tribute to them at Sylhet Martyred Intellectual Memorial.

Later, a memorial programme was organised. The event was presided over by Nagorik Moitree convenor Advocate Somor Bijoy Shee and conducted by Bangladesh Poribesh Andolon (Bapa)'s Sylhet chapter secretary Abdul Karim Kim.

Awami League's former organising secretary Advocate Misbah Uddin Siraj, and former president of Sylhet District Bar Association Advocate Emad Ullah Shahidul Islam spoke at the event, among others.
