

REINSTATEMENT
ACC can't keep Sharif's application pending: HC

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The High Court yesterday said the application submitted by former official of Anti-Corruption Commission (ACC), Md Sharif Uddin, seeking reinstatement of his job cannot be kept pending for an indefinite period. The ACC can review its decision of dismissing Sharif from the service or can reject his application, the HC bench of Justice Md Nazrul Islam Talukder and Justice Kazi Md Ejarul Haque Akondo said.

The bench said this while hearing a petition filed by Sharif, former deputy assistant director of ACC, challenging his dismissal from the job. The bench kept the petition stand over (waiting for hearing) till May 19.

On February 16, ACC sacked Sharif under section 54 (2) of Anti-Corruption Commission (Servants) Service Rules 2008. According to the section, the commission can terminate any officer either issuing 90-days' notice or paying 90-days salary in cash.

On March 13, Sharif filed the petition saying that ACC has violated his constitutional right by applying the section.

He also urged the HC to order the ACC to reinstate him in the service.

With one hand pushing her baby's stroller and the other trying to stop oncoming traffic, a woman puts both her and the child's life at risk just to cross the road at the capital's Science Lab intersection. Even though a footbridge is right in sight, it doesn't facilitate strollers or wheel-chairs to be taken up the stairs. This photo was taken on Sunday.

HUMAN TRAFFICKING THRU THE BAY

5 including Jubo League leader held

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, CTG

Rab claimed to have arrested five members of a human trafficking syndicate from Cox's Bazar's Rajakhali, who conned people by promising to send them to Malaysia.

The arrestees are Md Ismail (32), Md Saiful Alam (37), Riaz Khan Raju (41), Md Hossen (60) and Md Younus Mazi (56).

Riaz is a top leader of Cox's Bazar's Rajakhali union unit of Jubo League, said Rab.

Rab also seized 31 fake passports from them. "They used to extract cash from people of lower-income groups in Cox's Bazar and Banskhali by promising to send them to Malaysia on trawlers. They would later leave the migration aspirants in the middle of the Bay of Bengal and St Martins Island, saying that they have arrived in Malaysia," Rab-7 Commanding Officer (CO) Lt Col Md Yousuf said during a press conference yesterday.

The syndicate would also dump them on the Malaysian borders, where many of them were detained by Malaysian border guards.

He informed that the two brothers -- Ismail and Saiful -- would target young and unemployed individuals in rural areas and offered to help them migrate to Malaysia at the cost of Tk 2 lakh. Before the voyage, half the money should be deposited to the syndicate as an advance. They would promise to take the rest from the families of the migration aspirants after their landing on the Malaysian borders.

"Raju used to make the job seekers' passports for Tk 15,000 to Tk 20,000, using his influence as a ruling party activist at the passport office," said Lt Col Yousuf.

When the migration aspirants realised that they were deceived and demanded the money back, syndicate members used to file false cases against them and give death threats, said the Rab officials.

Arrested Hossen's son Emran had taken one Moktar Ali to Mozambique five years ago and got him kidnapped by the syndicate.

Emran then told Moktar's family to pay Tk 7.80 lakh as ransom. Moktar's family complied, but he is still missing.

According to Rab-7, Moktar was murdered by the syndicate soon after the abduction.

The syndicate has several cases filed against them under the Human Trafficking act, said the Rab official.

Youth attempts suicide in court to have case heard

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

A youth tried to take his life inside a packed courtroom in Chattogram yesterday. However, police foiled his attempt and detained him along with a knife.

The detainee is Md Jafar of port city's Madarbari area. Police, quoting his family members, claimed that the youth has been suffering from "mental illness".

Assistant Commissioner (AC-prosecution) Wahid Ullah Sarkar of CMP said, "The incident took place at the court of sixth Metropolitan magistrate around noon."

"During a case proceeding, Jafar broke into the courtroom and told the judge to listen to him, or else he will die by suicide. He asked the judge to take his case and at one point, took out a knife from his pocket and tried to slice his neck but police managed to foil his attempt," said the AC.

After the incident, police took him to the court jail. About the family's claim, he said they are verifying the information.

Tragic end of a new beginning Father, newly-married son die in road accident

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Thakurgaon

It was supposed to be the tale of a new beginning.

Twenty-five-year-old Arif Hossain didn't get many chances to visit his family for his job at BGB-11 in Bandarban. This time, when he got the chance, a new life awaited him as he got married just two weeks ago on March 24.

The mood was still festive when tragedy struck the family. Arif and his father Abdul Aziz alias Kalu (55), who was a retired BGB official, went out shopping on Sunday afternoon from Panchagarh Sadar upazila's Barbari village.

Around 3:00pm, when they were at Natunbazar on their way home from Chaklarhat, a tractor hit their bike, killing Arif on the spot.

His father succumbed to the injuries on the way to Rangpur Medical College Hospital, said OC Abdul Latif Miah of Panchagarh Sadar police.
