Charges framed

Judge Md Abdur Rahim framed the charges and set May 10 for starting the trial, said Nawshad Ahmed Chowdhury, public prosecutor of the court.
The six accused are: Sub-Inspector Akbar Hossain, suspended in-charge of Bandarbaraz police outpost; Sub-Inspector Hasan Uddin; Assistant Sub-Inspector Ashek e-Elahi; constables Harunur Rashid and Titu Chandra Das; and local journalist Abdullah Al Noman.
All the accused except Noman were produced before the court yesterday and they are now behind bars, the public prosecutor said.
Rayhan Ahmed, 33, a resident of Neharipara in Sylhet city, was tortured at Sylhet's Bandarbaraz police outpost on October 11, 2020, according to the case statement. He passed away an hour after being admitted to Sylhet MAG Osmani Medical College Hospital by police.

Police tried to cover up the torture claiming Rayhan died from mass beating.
Rayhan's wife Tahmina Akther Tanni filed the case on October 11 that year.
The Police Bureau of Investigation submitted the charge sheet on May 5 last year.
On September 30, Sylhet's additional chief metropolitan magistrate accepted the charge sheet and issued an arrest warrant against the lone fugitive.

Man stabbed to death in the capital

STAFF CORRESPONDENT
A man was stabbed to death in Dhaka's Dholaipara area yesterday morning.
The deceased Md Akash (22), was a helper of a human-haulier, living in Jatrabari.
Akash was found lying in a pool of blood around 4:30am. He was rushed to DMCH where doctors declared him dead.
It is not known immediately who stabbed him, said police.

Army chief leaves for US

STAFF CORRESPONDENT
Army Chief General SM Shafiqul Islam left for the US on an official visit at the invitation of US Army.
During his visit, he will hold meetings with the high US officials, including US Army Chief of Staff and Chief of National Guard in Pentagon, according to a statement of the Inter-Service Public Relations Department from April 20-22.
Shafiqul Islam will be included in the Hall of Fame as the graduate of Near East South Asia Centre of the National Defense University. He will participate in a roundtable on South Asian Regional Security.
On April 25-26, he will have several meetings at the UN Headquarter in the US and will return to Dhaka the day after.

A sand trader

It is forbidden to fill the land without permission. But Capital Petroleum has filled lands illegally," said Prasanta Talukder, sub-divisional engineer of Water Development Board (WDB) in Sitakunda.
Mufidul Alam, director of DoE's Chattogram region, called Capital for a hearing, but they did not attend it.
"DoE already fined it Tk 50 lakh, and a case is being prepared against Capital Petroleum," he added.
Nazim Uddin,

administration officer of Capital, admitted that they did not take any permission from DoE for extracting sand and filling farmland.
"We have been fined by the AC-land and DoE for not getting approval. We are trying to get permission," he said.
Dr Md Sharif Uddin, director of marine fisheries department in Chattogram, told The Daily Star, "The whole marine ecological system of the spot will be seriously affected due to the extraction. Fish habitats in the sea will be obstructed."

DU VC lauds BCL

Meanwhile, Rahmat Ullah yesterday arranged a press conference at Dhaka University Club to clarify his stance.
He said, "If I said anything inadvertently while speaking at the meeting, it was a mistake. For this, I apologise."

"I have been working for the interest of the country and the nation by remaining steadfast in the spirit of the Liberation War and the ideals of Bangabandhu," he added.

Helena Jahangir

year, IO Shahinur Islam, a CID inspector of police, submitted the charge sheet against the five.
According to the case documents, Helena took Tk 54,000 from Tuhin for appointing him as a local correspondent of Joyjatra TV. He worked for several months, but was not paid any salary. The television authorities also took Tk 3,000 per month from him.

Law enforcers arrested Helena during a raid at her Gulshan residence on July 29 last year. She was released on bail in November last year.
