Ex-MP Ashika | Akbar passes away

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Tangail

Former lawmaker Syeda Ashika Akbar passed away while she was undergoing treatment at Evercare Hospital in Dhaka yesterday.

She was 78. She left behind her husband, three daughters and two sons and numerous admirers to mourn her death.

Ashika was the only daughter of Nawabjada Hasan Ali Chowdhury, son of Sved Nawab Ali Chawdhury, Nawab of Dhanbari.

She was buried at the family graveyard after a namaz-e-janaja on Nawab Eidgah ground in Dhanbari, Tangail after Asr Áshika was elected MP from Tangail-1 (Madhupur-Dhanbari) constituency in the 1981 by-election as a BNP candidate.

Dr Abdur Razzaque, agriculture minister and incumbent lawmaker of the constituency, expressed his deep shock at her death and expressed sympathy to the bereaved family.

CU 45th batch convening committee formed

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A convening committee of Chittagong University's 45th batch students has been formed, making Jubayer Bin Harun its convener.

Besides, Md Shahidul Alam Noyan was made member secretary of the committee, formed in presence of departments' representatives last week.

Sibaji Chowdhury, Shihab Ud Dowla, Trisha Barua, Shawon Azhar, Mizanur Rahaman Minu, Iftekhar Uddin, Mohaiminul Faisal and Fatema Jannat were made joint conveners.

potential of wind power here, and under this framework, they support us," Momen said, terming the framework document a landmark.

The cooperation will bring all instruments into play, ranging from diplomatic action and development cooperation to climate funding and investments, trade and private sector relations, including public-private partnerships, he said.

Mortensen said signing the document signals that the two countries are ready to "walk the talk" on the commitments made in the Paris Agreement.

Dhaka and Copenhagen would also like to work together in the fishing and #### blue economy areas.

Momen also urged Copenhagen to firmly raise the Rohingya issue at the UN Security Council, as Denmark is going to become a member of the council.

Yesterday, the crown princess and Mortensen paid a courtesy call on Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina at her official Gono Bhaban residence.

Quoting the Danish minister, prime minister's press secretary Ihsanul Karim said they discussed stronger cooperation renewable on energy, technology transfer, Rohingya crisis and women empowerment.

Noting that Bangladesh is a country vulnerable to climate change, Hasina said the government has formed a climate trust fund, and some special programmes have been taken to face the adverse impact of climate change.

The prime minister said her government has developed Bhashanchar as a liveable place, as part of the plan to shift Rohingyas there.

The Danish minister commended Bangladesh's huge development and described it as a development miracle. Bangladesh has earned high level of respect in the international community. Mortensen businessmen and entrepreneurs of Denmark are now interested to invest in various sectors of Bangladesh.

Cumilla city polls the corporation's tenure doesn't contest the local government elections, Humayun replied, "The Commission Election expects that all political parties will join city polls."

"The EC believes in inclusiveness and it wants to hold free, fair, participatory and credible elections," he added.

The five-year tenure of the corporation will expire on May 16, as the first city corporation meeting was held on May 17, 2017 after the election was held on March 30 of that year.

The EC could not hold the election on time due to Ramadan and Eid vacations for several days, Humayun earlier said.

Local Government Division Senior Secretary

Helal Uddin Ahmed told

The Daily Star that the government will appoint an administrator after expires, in line with the law. Talking about holding due Zila Parishad elections. Humayun said they have received a letter from the government in this regard and they are working on it.

In a letter to the EC on April 18, the LGRD ministry's Local Government Division urged the EC to take necessary steps to hold Zila Parishad elections as soon as possible.

The first-ever Zila Parishad polls took place in December 28, 2016. Amid boycotts by the BNP and the Jatiya Party, the ruling Awami Leaguebacked candidates became chairmen in 25 districts, AL leaders running as independents won in 13, and AL leaders won unopposed in 21. Polls were held in two other districts
