Commuters in peril

“Every day, we face the same situation, as a syndicate is creating an artificial crisis of buses to charge commuters more,” said Rashed Hasan, a daily commuter.
“During the afternoons, the fare from Shah Amanat Bridge to Patiya goes from Tk 30 to Tk 50 even,” said another commuter Tapos Sen. This correspondent verified the claim after a visit to the terminal on Wednesday.
When a passenger asked why the fare is Tk 50 instead of Tk 30, the conductor replied, “It’s direct service.”
“We have to accept their unethical and illegal fare. They are sheltered by the transport association,” said another passenger Abu Taher.
Contacted, Abdus Sattar Rony, general secretary of South Chattogram Passengers’ Welfare Association, said, “As Patiya is the nearest upazila, many people who work in the port city commute to and from their village homes every day. Bus owners capitalise on this situation.”
“The bus owners’ association leaders are behind the passengers’ sufferings,” he added.
Contacted, Mobarak Hossain, general secretary of Chattogram-Cox’s Bazar-Teknaf Sarak Paribahan Malik Group, denied the allegation.
“There is no scope to charge extra fare for any route,” he said.
He said there is a crisis of vehicles on the route to Patiya, as only 73 buses ply the route, but the number of commuters is over 30,000.
According to Mobarak, a bus makes four trips a day; with 73 buses, 292 trips are made in total. One bus has to carry 102 passengers to meet the demand.
“Due to the shortage of transport, many city buses illegally make trips on this route whenever they get the chance. They might have charged extra fare from the passengers,” he added.
This correspondent could not contact BRTA deputy director (Chattogram) Shafiquzzaman Bhuiyan despite repeated attempts.

90pc of haor

Hasina is inquiring about the situation in the haor regularly. The Ministry of Water Resources, Water Development Board, district administration and agriculture department are working together as per PM’s directions.
For the sake of haor people, holidays of the officials and employees of Water Development Board have been cancelled. The ministry is working on adopting a plan to solve the problem of haor permanently.

The deputy minister said the PM has announced the implementation of Delta Plan 2100 to build a developed Bangladesh in the future. The Ministry of Water Resources will implement 80 percent of the work of this master plan. If this plan is implemented, there will be no problem of river erosion and waterlogging in the whole country. The Ministry of Water Resources and Water Development Board are working tirelessly to implement this master plan, he said.

Jasim denied the allegation of attacking Jiten.
“Why would my followers attack him?” he said.
“Locals were angry with Jiten, as he took money from them – pledging to manage houses for them under the prime minister’s Ashrayan Project but not following through. That prompted them to attack him.”
On information, police rushed to the spot, said Rezaul Karim Chowdhury, officer-in-charge of Patiya Police Station. They are looking into the matter.
“Although no case has been filed over the incident yet, we have been conducting drives to arrest the perpetrators,” he added.

operation active for over a decade. Later, law enforcers suspended it after the 2016 Gulshan café attack for security reasons.
However, the boatmen resumed operation on their own on January 1 this year, as slum dwellers have to pay more money to go to Gulshan-1 by rickshaw.
Amina Begum (35), who works as a house help at Gulshan-1, said Tk 40-50 fare is needed for a rickshaw ride, and she has to commute multiple times a day.
Before the suspension, around 90 boats plied the 100-metre route; that number came down to 11. This year, after resumption, the armed group took Tk 10,000-15,000 from each boat in advance.
Contacted, Councillor Nasir Uddin said he is not involved in any kind of extortion. “This is an illegal ghat. As I requested police to stop the operation, the boatmen are spreading false claims against me,” he said.
About the legality, the boatmen said authorities neither permitted boat operation nor prohibited it.

The Karail slum berthing point is under ward-19, of which the councillor is Mofiz Uddin.
Mofiz said he heard about the extortion in the name of a nearby ward councillor. “Police will look into it.”
Asked, Gulshan Police Station Officer-in-Charge Abul Hasan said they were unaware about the boat operation. “We don’t know about such extortion as well. We will look into it.”
Meanwhile, expressing grief, a boatman told The Daily Star recently that for the last one month, they could not take the fare directly from passengers. Owners of the boats have been collecting money from the two ghats.
In that case, a boatman gets only Tk 400-600 for around 80-90 trips a day, although they earn Tk 4,000-5,000, he said.
Earlier, boatmen handed over the fare to the owners, who gave them around Tk 800 each, he added.
On the issue, the boat owners said they are doing so as they have to spend money for various purposes to keep the boat operation running.

gardens. Hence, we are stuck here despite the low wage.” “We have protested on multiple occasions regarding temporary workers not being paid the same as permanent ones, but to no avail,” said Jagabandhu Roy, president of Phulchhara tea garden panchayat committee.
According to the latest data from Statistical Handbook on Bangladesh Tea Industry-2019, Bangladesh currently has 166 tea gardens in total, where there are 1,03,747 permanent and 36,437 temporary workers.
The total tea population, those who are dependent on the income of permanent and temporary workers, is 4,72,125.
Pankaj Kondo, vice-president of Bangladesh Cha Sramik Union central committee, said, although the number of temporary tea workers was officially shown as 36,000, it is now more than 50,000.
“The agreement to pay equal wages to temporary tea workers was signed by Tea Association of Bangladesh but has not yet been implemented in all tea gardens. We have continued the discussion,” he added.
Contacted, Md Shah Jahan, deputy director of the social services (Bede, backward and transgender people) department, said, “We will take necessary action in this regard.”
