Ahmed Mottaki said that the course has initially started, and later, a bachelor's course in agriculture will be introduced.

Retired officers of Bangladesh's Department of Agricultural Extension (DAE) Dr Mahmud Mirdah and Dr Md Khaled Kamal joined the initiative to conduct the course and oversee the overall programme.

Currently, there are more than 3,000 students in 17 branches of MI College in different islands of Maldives. Most of its students are Maldivians.

The college was established in 2006 by Ahmed Mottaki, and has contributed significantly to the expansion of education in the Maldives.

Mottaki of Shahbazpur in Brahmanbaria's Sarail upazila has been an expatriate in the Maldives for over 30 years.

Although he started his professional life by teaching in a government school in the country, he is now an education entrepreneur and a businessperson.

Currently there is a tourism park on the east side of Zero Point where there is toilet and bathing facility.

Therefore, tourists think that the public toilet at Zero Point should be closed. Kuakata municipality has been operating this public toilet through a lessee.

Anwar Hawlader, mayor of Kuakata municipality, said, "A public toilet has been constructed east of Zero Point for the convenience of tourists. There are plans to build another public toilet on the west side. After that, the public toilet at Zero Point will be closed."

Patuakhali Deputy Commissioner Mohammad Kamal Hossain, also chairman of Kuakata Beach Management Committee, said necessary steps would be taken in this regard.

Labour Conference, which will take place between May 27 and June 11.

An order, however, said all expenses of the delegates, other than government officials and ministers, will be borne by themselves.

Railways Minister Nurul Islam Sujan led an eight-member delegation, including his and the ministry secretary's spouses, on a trip to the UK, Germany, Spain and France between November 23 and December 5 last year. The spouses bore their own expenses, officials said.

The government, in July last year, withheld 50 percent of this fiscal's allocation for foreign trips and asked officials to cancel routine tours, as part of safety measures during the pandemic. From March 2020 to July 2021, Tk 2,500 crore allocated for foreign tours of government officials was saved.

chief said Tk 64,000 crore is being siphoned off on an average every year from the country. According to the data of the GFI, he said Tk 320,000 crore has been laundered from the country in five years from 2009 to 2015. He said it should also be investigated whether the authorities concerned are reluctant to play their role in containing money laundering.

Ensure rights

it comes to uphold rights of persons with disabilities.

In her speech, MJF Executive Director Shaheen Anam said a handful number of braille versions of the national action plan and gazettes were published, which will be distributed among visually-impaired people.

She urged the government to publish more copies of the braille version of the national action plan so that visually-impaired people can know well about their rights cited in the government document. The government has good initiatives for persons with disabilities but those are not inclusive yet.

The government has to play a lead role in ensuring rights of persons with disabilities while rights groups can play supportive role to achieve the goal, she said. She urged people to show a positive mindset towards persons with disabilities.

According to a keynote paper read out at the programme, the number of persons with disability in the country is about 25.5 lakh. Of them, 3.5 lakh are visually impaired.

Monsur Ahmed Chowdhury, a visually-impaired person and founder trustee of Impact Foundation Bangladesh, said braille version in Bangla is not yet officially recognised in the country, and stressed government initiative in this regard.

Shobnam Mushtary, a deputy secretary at social welfare ministry, said collaboration among different ministries is important to ensure rights of persons with disabilities.

Adaitya Kumar Roy, national project director at the Department of Social Services, among others, spoke at the event.

TAPOSH WARNS GOVT AGENCIES, DEVELOPERS
At a views exchange meeting at Nagar Bhaban on the same day, Taposh warned all government agencies that have housing areas in Dhaka that they will face action if they fail to destroy Aedes-mosquito breeding grounds.

He said it will not be possible to control Aedes mosquitoes properly without other government agencies playing responsible roles.

"The city corporation's mosquito-control activities are being hampered due to these under-construction buildings.

We're conducting drives regularly, and in some cases, we fined developers. But visible initiative from them in this regard is absent," he said. Warning them, the mayor said if they fail to take measures, DSCC will not only impose fines but will also stop their construction activities.
