Jute fashion show marks BAFA anniversary

Mohammad Amir Hossain Rangan, founder of 'K' Fashion House and JERB Institute (Jute Economic Revolution of Bangladesh), presented a jute fashion show on 27 May to mark BAFA's (Bulbul Academy of Fine Arts) 67th founding anniversary.

Rangan is well known for his dedicated effort to revitalise the jute industry. The Bangladesh University of Textiles honoured Rangan with the rank of "Pioneer" in jute clothing. He has also been wearing clothes made of jute bags for seven years, embodying the values he preaches.

Rangan believes that a revival of jute in Bangladesh can help against global warming and youth unemployment.
