ASHLEY SHOPTORSHI SAMADDAR

Fresh off the release of “Ei Muhurte” this Eid, Sunerah Binte Kamal is set to return to the screen with the Vicky Zahed directorial web film “Shuklopokkho”. Sunerah will be seen as Laboni, in the psychological thriller.

While conversing with The Daily Star, the National Award winning actress discussed her upcoming ventures and future plans.

What caught your attention when you were offered the role of Laboni in “Shuklopokkho”?

“Shuklopokkho” is my first web film, and my second project with Chorki.

I found the script of this production interesting and being able to work with Vicky Zahed, who is known for his thriller-mystery storytelling, was a great opportunity for me.

How was your experience with the film?

We had very little time in the pre-production of this film. However, I am very confident that Vicky Zahed will make sure the outcome is worth watching.

We had to face a lot of challenges while shooting for this production due to the heavy rainfall. We even had to cancel our shoot in Gazipur, and then reschedule it later. Nevertheless, the production is finally coming to the audience and that's what matters.

Did any memorable incident take place on the film's set?

BETTER CALL SAUL

Blurring the line between good and bad

“Better Call Saul”, a spin-off from the critically acclaimed show “Breaking Bad”, follows the tale of Saul Goodman, a lawyer and ex-con artist. Saul Goodman, whose real name is Jimmy McGill, dreams of becoming a respectable lawyer, in hopes of following in the footsteps of his older brother.

Unfortunately, due to his own history coupled with constant belittling from his older brother, Saul finds himself slowly slipping into morally grey areas of the law to win cases. Saul's journey from being a good lawyer to the flamboyant criminal lawyer we saw alongside Walt and Jesse, takes place in the six-year period prior to the start of “Breaking Bad”.

If you're looking for a show that can tell you a compelling narrative that blurs the line between good and bad, then you should definitely check out “Better Call Saul”.

Statement

Miss World Bangladesh 2018 winner Jannatul Ferdous Oishee rocked a vintage look with a black thin strapped velvet dress. She paired it with black hand-gloves and minimal makeup. She wore black stone ear studs and a necklace to compliment the dress. With a bob layer-cut, she looked like an 80's British diva.
