AL ranks irked over hike in fuel prices

Believe it might cost the party dearly

PARTHA PRATIM BHATTACHARJEE and ASHIK ABDULLAH APU

On Sunday noon, Awami League Presidium Member Kazi Zafarullah did something unusual -- he ditched his SUV, hid his face behind a mask and got on a bus in front of Purabi cinema hall in the city's Pallabi. The reason for taking the bus, bound for Kakoli, was to see first-hand how the latest fuel price hike affected commuters.

Minutes after the vehicle started moving, the bus conductor asked him to pay Tk 30 as fare for the trip to Kakoli. The demand from the conductor came as a surprise to him since he knew the fare would be Zafarullah asked the conductor why he was charging more than the new rate fixed by the government on Saturday.

"The fare has been raised up to 22 percent ... If you follow the new rate, the fare should be Tk 24.20. You can take Tk 25, not Tk 30," he told the conductor.

The visibly angry conductor, without having any idea whom he was talking to, said, "Don't argue. The fare is Tk 30. Get down if you don't Zafarullah paid Tk 30 and got down at the Chairman Bari intersection.

Later, he shared his experience with his party colleagues at the AL office in Dhanmondi on Sunday evening, said party insiders who were

This is worsening the plight of the people who are already struggling to meet their living expenses.

The prices of edible oil and flour two essential commodities, shot up a few months ago after the Russia-Ukraine war broke out. Wholesale prices of potatoes, onions, garlics, and gingers had already been high since the beginning of this month.

Onions in wholesale went up Tk 2 a kg and garlic and ginger by Tk 3 to 5 per kg over the last two days. Potatoes increased by Tk 2 to Tk 3 per kg.

Diesel is now Tk 114 a litre. Visiting different kitchen markets in the capital over the last couple of days, The Daily Star found that prices of some commodities have increased by Tk 10-30 per kg.

BB orders six banks to transfer treasury chiefs

AKM ZAMIR UDDIN

Bangladesh Bank has ordered six banks to transfer their treasury heads to human resources departments over their role in the volatility in the country's foreign exchange market, according to several BB officials with direct knowledge about the development.

The banks are Standard Chartered Bangladesh, Brac Bank, Dutch-Bangla Bank Ltd, The City Bank, Southeast Bank, and Prime Bank, said the central bank officials.

The names of the treasury chiefs could not be known immediately. None of the banks responded to The Daily

Star's requests for comments. The BB sent letters to the six banks yesterday, asking them to transfer their treasury chiefs, said the BB officials.

They said the treasury chiefs helped their employers make excessive profits by cashing in on the ongoing volatility in the foreign currency regime, which saw the exchange rate of US dollar shoot past Tk 110 amid a shortage of greenback.

A bank's treasury department focuses on liquidity management in both local and foreign currencies as well as asset and liability management.

US finally gets on board

Agrees to give financial assistance

DIPLOMATIC CORRESPONDENT

The US yesterday agreed to provide financial assistance for the Rohingyas in Bhasan Char, which can help mitigate the funding challenges for those sheltered in the island, said Foreign Secretary Masud Bin

Momen. Bangladesh and UN signed an MoU in October last year, but the US initially refrained from funding amid severe criticism of relocation of Rohingyas from Cox's Bazar to the island in Noakhali. Currently, around 20,000 Rohingyas are living in the island. The government wants to relocate at least 80,000 more people who have sought refuge in Bangladesh from a brutal military crackdown in Myanmar's Rakhine State. "They [US] will extend their hand in Bhasan Char. This is a new thing. We thanked them," he told reporters at the Foreign Service Academy yesterday after a meeting with US Assistant Secretary of State for International Organisation Affairs Michele J Sison.

Sison said the relocation must be voluntary.
