

THESIS PLAGIARISM
HC forms committee
for prevention guideline

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The High Court yesterday formed a seven-member expert committee to formulate a guideline to prevent plagiarism in PhD thesis in all public universities.

The committee has been asked to submit a report to the HC in three months.

The committee members are former Dhaka University VC Prof AAMS Arefin Siddique; Prof Muhammed Zafar Iqbal; former UGC chairman Prof Abdul Mannan; Prof Saifuddin Md Tareeq, chairperson of computer science and technology department at DU; Prof Nasib Muhammed Nasirullah of law department at DU, and professors Mahbuba Naznin and Mostofa Akbar of Buet.

The UGC has been asked to provide necessary assistance to the committee, said DAG Tushar Kanti Roy.

The HC bench of Justice JBM Hassan and Justice Razik-Al-Jalil came up with the order while hearing a petition filed by SC lawyer Md Moniruzzaman Lincon.

atop offices of all government, semi-government and autonomous bodies and educational institutions.

The president and prime minister will place wreaths at the portrait of the Father of the Nation at Bangabandhu Museum at 6:30am. A contingent of the armed forces will give a guard of honour to the portrait of Bangabandhu. Special prayers will be offered there.

Later in the day, Hasina will place wreaths and offer prayers at the Banani Graveyard for her family members and others, who embraced martyrdom.

Following the president, PM and other dignitaries, people from all walks of life will throng the Bangabandhu Memorial Museum in Dhamondi to pay their homage.

In line with the national programme, different ministries, departments, directorates and agencies will organise events at their respective institutions. Similarly, all city corporations, district councils, municipalities and union councils will observe the day with due respect and solemnity.

The district and upazila administrations as well as information ministry have organised different events.

Bangladesh missions abroad will arrange discussions and hoist the national flag at half-mast at their respective offices.

Bangladesh Betar, Bangladesh Television, private TV channels and radio stations will air special programmes marking the day, while national and regional newspapers will bring out special supplements.

In observance of the day, Awami League has chalked out elaborate programmes.

The national and party flags will fly half-mast atop all AL offices and Bangabandhu Bhaban.

Party leaders will place wreaths at the portrait of Bangabandhu in front of Bangabandhu Museum at 6:00am.

Later, party leaders will place wreaths and offer fataha at the Banani graveyard. An AL delegation will also join the programmes in Tungipara. The ruling party leaders will distribute foods among the destitute in the afternoon.

Special prayers will be offered at all mosques across the country and other places of worship.

Tomorrow, a discussion will be held at Bangabandhu International Conference Centre at 4:30pm with AL President Sheikh Hasina in the chair.

A micro-site has been launched to accelerate the participation. The site also gives a glimpse of Bangabandhu and his heroic stance to ensure independence for the nation.

The campaign also gives participants a chance to get featured on The Daily Star with their write-ups.

Also, top six participants from two categories (English 3 and Bangla 3) will get a chance to be featured and rewarded by The Daily Star and Nagad Ltd.

Zimbabwe in 2001. Amid these developments, today the nation will observe National Mourning Day and pay tribute to Bangabandhu and his family members, brutally murdered on this day in 1975.

Law Minister Anisul Huq told this correspondent that the Hasina-led government has been engaged with the governments of the US and Canada to bring convicts Rashed Chowdhury and Nur Chowdhury back to the country.

"I hope that the US government will send Rashed Chowdhury back to Bangladesh like the country had returned Maj (retd) Mohiuddin – another convict of the assassination of the Father of the Nation – in 2007," the law minister said.

A dialogue is ongoing with the Canadian government to bring back Nur Chowdhury to Bangladesh, even though the Canadian government does not approve of returning criminals accused to a country where they have been sentenced to death," he added.

The law minister, who was the principal state counsel of the Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman murder case, declined to make any comment about the progress of finding out the three other fugitive killers.

He said his ministry has finalised a draft outline for the formation of the commission including its jurisdiction and terms of reference for finding out the conspirators behind the assassination of Bangabandhu and his family members.

Star with their write-ups. Also, top six participants from two categories (English 3 and Bangla 3) will get a chance to be featured and rewarded by The Daily Star and Nagad Ltd.

Father assaulted, mugged

Three of the arrestees were identified as Jaynal's sons Hannan and Mannan and their employee Sohel.

Mashirul said the three sons are solvent and owners of hardware shops and hotels.

However, they would torture their parents for money from time to time. At one point, the sons drove them out of their homes.

Although the father paid most of the rent of his eldest son Hanif's house, he was driven out from there due to a disagreement with his son's wife.

The couple with six offspring then went to live with their younger son, from where they were driven away too, Mashirul said.

As Jaynal sold the land for money, two of his sons – Hannan and Mannan – argued over their share.

They suspected that a large part of the money would be given to their younger sister with disabilities, according to detectives.

As Jaynal, on the motorcycle of his son-in-law, was heading towards his house, the two brothers informed Hanif about it.

Hanif along with his shop's employee Sohel and some others stood guard in front of Jaynal's house and hit his father with an iron rod. He fell off the motorcycle after being hit, said the officials.

By this time, the two brothers arrived and started beating their brother-in-law as he tried to save Jaynal. The sons then made away with the money.

Mashirul said they are trying to arrest the other accused in the case.
