She said the government was taking steps so that the country didn't face food scarcity.
Hasina, also the leader of the House, reiterated her call for the people to utilise every inch of the country's land to produce food on.
In this regard, she said that due to the high prices of the imported items, the country's import expenditure has raised by an additional $9 billion.

She said the export incentives will be widened to increase export and diversify it.
Hasina said the whole world got into trouble due to the Russia-Ukraine war and sanctions and counter sanctions. Developed countries have already started exercising austerity.

This was for the first time in the recent history of parliament that a general discussion was held on any public interest issue like price hike of essentials and fuel.

Bangladesh from August 14 to 17. During her visit, she held meetings with the prime minister, other ministers, civil society groups, and diplomats, and visited Rohingya camps, before ending her tenure as UN rights chief today.
Asked whether the government's investigation would be independent and neutral, Shahrir said yes. He asked why more than 400 Rab members and over 1,000 police officers faced actions for their misdeeds if departmental probes were not independent.

Office has said that some media organisations in Bangladesh have published misinformation on the press conference of the body's chief Michelle Bachelet, held on August 25.
"We regret the misinformation," said UN High Commissioner for Human Rights Spokesperson Ravina Shamdasani in an email sent to the media yesterday.
Some media organisations wrote that Bachelet in her annual global report mentioned no human rights concerns about Bangladesh.

"I don't see the logic to go beyond the department... If civil society groups are engaged, they would say Shahrir Alam led these incidents," he said.
Of the 66 missing people, at least 28 are notorious criminals, he mentioned.

"As you must be aware, the high commissioner extensively discussed her concerns about a wide range of human rights issues in her meetings with government, civil society and other interlocutors and in her end-of-mission statement in Dhaka," Shamdasani said referring to Bachelet's press conference in Dhaka on August 17 after a four-day visit to Bangladesh.

Meanwhile, marking International Day of the Victims of Enforced Disappearances, the US embassy in Dhaka yesterday reiterated Bachelet's call for greater scrutiny of allegations of enforced disappearances.

She said as the high commissioner had already extensively covered the human rights issues in Bangladesh, she chose to focus her August 25 end-of-mandate statement in Geneva on global issues, as well as the Rohingya anniversary, which was on the day itself.

He said people may go missing for various reasons. Notorious criminals generally go into hiding to evade trials.
A separate wage board will fix the salaries and allowances of media personnel in line with the salary scale of the government employees and it will apply to the media outlets' owners.

International Bangladesh have raised objections to various sections of the proposed law.
The space for independent media will shrink further if the proposed bill is passed by the parliament as it would bring the media industry and mass media employees under further control of the bureaucracy in the name of protection, said the Editors' Council (Sampadak Parishad) in a statement on April 19.

or registration of the media for violation of the law, while the owners of the media outlets will also face punishment.
If anyone or any organisation violates the provisions of the bill, there will be a fine of Tk 50,000-Tk 5 lakh or imprisonment, the cabinet secretary said.

Rashed bin Khaled, duty officer of Fire Service and Civil Defence Headquarters, said the fire was doused before the firefighters reached there.
"We primarily suspect that the fire originated from a gas leak."

As many as 37 out of the 54 provisions are not journalist friendly, it said.
The government will be able to cancel the licences

Once the new law is passed in parliament, the jobs of media employees will no longer be regulated under the labour law.

facilities worldwide lack basic hygiene services with water and soap or alcohol-based hand rub in the toilets of these facilities.
Around 3.85 billion are at risk by using these facilities, including the 688 million who receive care at facilities with no hygiene services at all.

Their improvement is essential to pandemic recovery, prevention and preparedness.
Hygiene in health care facilities cannot be secured without increasing investments in basic measures, which include safe water, clean toilets, and safely managed health care waste," said Dr Maria Neira, WHO director, Department of Environment, Climate Change and Health.

"Hygiene facilities and practices in health care settings are non-negotiable.

"If healthcare providers don't have access to a hygiene service, patients don't have a healthcare facility. Every year, around 670,000 newborns lose their lives to sepsis. This is a travesty -- even more so as their deaths are preventable," said Kelly Ann Naylor, Unicef director of WASH and Climate, Environment, Energy, and Disaster Risk Reduction.

Firoz Hasan, who teaches at a school for underprivileged children, said 35 to 40 children, earning a living by selling flowers around TSC, are regular students of the makeshift school they run at Suhrawardy Udyan.

Contacted, Jahangir Alam, proprietor of the canteen at Shaheed Sergeant Zahurul Haque Hall, said a while back, some of the hall students used to teach these children.

"It's not that we want to encourage child labour. But these children also have no option as they have to support their families back home," he said.

He, however, believes that they should be provided with technical education, instead of a traditional one. He said he will discuss the issue in the upcoming standing committee meeting.
