

Trip to manage waste or waste public money?

Sylhet mayor to visit US to inspect purchases; 6 officials awaiting permission to go along

DWOHA CHOWDHURY, Sylhet

The government recently allowed the Sylhet City Corporation (SCC) mayor to visit a factory in the US, from which SCC bought 20 vehicles for a waste management project.

The government order, issued by the Ministry of Local Government, Rural Development and Cooperatives on August 30, mentioned that Bangla Trac Limited would bear the cost of the four-day trip to the factory of Caterpillar Inc.

But this borne cost will actually come out of the prices SCC paid for the vehicles.

At a time when the government is trying to limit foreign trips of government officials to save money, this issue has raised concerns.

On top of this, SCC Chief Engineer Nur Azizur Rahman, Executive Engineer Shamsul Islam, Assistant Engineer (Electrical) Joydeb Biswas, Sub-assistant Engineer (Mechanical) Jaberul Islam, Conservancy Officer Hanifur Rahman, and a joint secretary of the ministry are awaiting government sanction for the trip.

Faruque Mahmud Chowdhury, president of Sushashoner Jonno Nagorik's (Shujan) Sylhet chapter, said, "Although cost of such trips is covered by a company, it [company] includes the cost in the price of the products it's selling. So in actuality, taxpayers' money will be spent for this trip."

"Furthermore, it doesn't make any sense for the mayor and a ministry official, who don't have the technical knowledge, to visit the factory," he said.

The trip was scheduled for August 27 to 30, but as the officials are still awaiting permission, the dates will be rescheduled, said SCC officials.

Spending Tk 17 crore for a project to modernise waste management, SCC recently purchased 15 compactor trucks, two wheel excavators, two bulldozers, and a wrecker of Caterpillar from Bangla Trac Limited.

SCC Chief Engineer Nur Azizur Rahman said, "Such purchases include

A rare display of integrity

Man who travelled on trains without tickets during govt job repays debts

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Brahmanbaria

Emdadul Haque of South Mourail area of Brahmanbaria town came to the booking assistant's room at Brahmanbaria Railway Station around 12:30pm on Monday.

Remorse has been a constant feeling for 61-year-old Emdadul Haque for the last couple of months. The reason is enough to come as a surprise for anyone in these times.

During his years as a government employee, Emdadul travelled several times without tickets on different trains on Dhaka Chattogram and Dhaka-Sylhet railway routes.

Being driven by his conscience, Emdadul has recently paid all his dues after his retirement.

This rare occurrence went viral on social media as an instance of honesty and integrity.

Emdadul, a father of four, worked as a constable at the Anti-Corruption Commission. He went on retirement in December 2020.

During his service, Emdadul travelled without tickets on different trains on multiple occasions as he could not manage tickets at all times.

However, he kept records of all his due fares. These records helped him pay his dues upon retirement.

"There is no other way to repay this debt. So I gave the money directly to the railway. I don't know if I will be free from the liability but at least I will get my peace of mind."

"Ever since my retirement, I have been suffering from guilt for travelling without tickets during my service years. The fares were paid after contacting the railway authorities," he added.

The story went viral on social media after Soheli Rana Bhuiyan, the admin of a Facebook page named "The Train", posted a status mentioning the incident.

Brahmanbaria Railway Station Master Rafiqul Islam said the railway authorities were overwhelmed as Emdadul has set such an example of honesty.

Didar Mollah, booking assistant at Brahmanbaria Railway Station, said, "Emdadul travelled several times without a ticket during his time as a service holder. But he had been suffering from remorse ever since he retired."

"That is the reason he [Emdadul] contacted the railway himself. To get rid of the debt, he paid by buying a ticket worth Tk 2,530," said Didar.

NOAKHALI MEDICAL COLLEGE Students stage demo for safe campus

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Noakhali

Students of Abdul Malek Ukil Medical College in Noakhali demonstrated on campus yesterday to press forward a 21-point demand, including safe campus, better accommodation, safety for female students, adequate supply of books in the library and ban on outsiders.

Over 300 students participated in the movement and locked the administrative building of the college from 10:00am to 3:00pm.

Besides, they also confined some college staffers, including the librarian, for allegedly misbehaving with the students.

Later, in assurance of the college principal [acting] Dr Mahbubur Rahman, they withdrew their demonstration for the day. But they declared to suspend their classes, until their demands are met.

Mahbubur said, "The demands are reasonable. We'll try to implement them as soon as possible."

Protect rivers, canals in Patuakhali NRCC chief directs admin

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Patuakhali

The grabbers of canals and rivers flowing through Patuakhali town will be evicted to restore the waterbodies, said National River Conservation Commission (NRCC) Chairman Dr Manjur Ahmed Chowdhury.

He instructed the district administration to take action against encroachers, no matter how powerful they might be.

He said this while inspecting the canals and rivers in Patuakhali on Monday.

He said most of the town's 53 canals have disappeared and few that existed have turned into narrow drains.

'Stripped of our right to land' Santals allege ruling party lawmaker 'grabbed' their land in Dinajpur

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The Santal community in Dinajpur has brought allegations of land grabbing against an Awami League lawmaker and his uncle, in a press conference under the banner of "Movement for Santal Life and Land" in Jatiya Press Club yesterday.

According to the allegations, Shibli Sadique, AL lawmaker from Dinajpur-6 and his uncle Delwar Hossen, also president of Jatiya Party's Dinajpur district unit, grabbed around 77 acres of the Santal community's land.

"Three graveyards belonging to the Mahali and Santal communities have been occupied by the uncle-nephew duo, where an amusement park and a residential building have been built," alleged the speakers at the event.

Ukil Hembrom, one of the victims of land grabbing, said he owned 33 decimals of land. "But I'm only left with five decimals," he said.

Altaf Ali, a resident of Dinajpur's Nawabganj, said the plot to grab the Santal community's land began in 2019. "During the pandemic, they grabbed his 300 decimals of land, he alleged.

'Stop sand lifting, save us from erosion' Locals demand at human chain

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Tangail

People of several erosion affected villages formed a human chain beside Jhenai river at Nothkhola in Basail upazila of Tangail yesterday.

They demanded that the authorities take immediate steps to stop illegal sand lifting to save their houses, crop lands and other properties.

Hundreds of people from Dapnajar, Nothkhola, and Kashil took part in the two-hour protest.

Two bridges at Dapnajar and Kashil have already disappeared into the river due to erosion triggered by mindless sand lifting, they alleged.

Yunus Ali, president of Tangail district unit of Muktijoddhya Kalyan Parishad, said, "We want the cooperation of the local administration in this regard."

GRAFT CASES Wife of ex-Karnaphuli official sent to jail

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

A Chattogram court yesterday sent the wife of a former official of Karnaphuli Gas Distribution Company Limited (KGDCIL) to jail in two graft cases filed by Anti-Corruption Commission.

Chattogram Metropolitan Sessions Judge Begum Jebunnesa sent Kamrun Nahar, wife of Anis Uddin Ahmed Shamim, to jail after she surrendered before the court seeking bail.

In the same case, Anis, former DGM of KGDCIL, received bail from the court on health-related grounds, said Advocate Mahmudul Haque, public prosecutor of the Anti-Corruption Commission.

According to the case, Anis had open a developer company named "Rock Properties" in collaboration with one Nesar Ahmed, his wife Nursat Jahan, and Kamrun Nahar. In the process, he violated the government employee's service rules.
