Dhaka local buses to finally get e-ticketing

The e-ticketing system is going to be launched on an experimental basis for Dhaka local buses starting September 20, 2022.

The decision stems from the initiative of Khandaker Enayet Ullah, General Secretary of Dhaka Road Transport Owners Association.

As part of an initial pilot program with e-ticketing partner 'Jatri Services Limited' under the overall supervision of Dhaka Road Transport Owners Association, a total of five companies including Prajapati Paribahan, Paristhan Paribahan, Achim Paribahan, Noor-e Makka Paribahan and Basumati Paribahan have completed an agreement on September 1, 2022.

TikTok launches Creator Portal Bangla

TikTok has launched its Creator Portal in Bangladesh, a one-stop shop for educational resources on content creation for creators on its platform. Creator Portal Bangla, which can be accessed on the TikTok account @bdtiktokcreators, is a series of videos that will provide guidance, tips and tricks to help creators maximize their in-app presence and take their videos to the next level.

The Portal will help creators dive deeper into modules such as storytelling, community building and creative effects, aimed at inspiring and diversifying content creation on the platform. It will also include a detailed module on TikTok's Community Guidelines so Bangladeshi content creators can understand them better and implement them while creating content for their audiences. This will not only help in elevating the quality of content on the platform but will also ensure TikTok remains a safe space where its users come

EDITOR'S NOTE

Acing it, virtual style

Ever since the pandemic, online job interviews have become a regular occurrence. While physical interviews require their own hefty style of planning, preparing for online interviews can be as demanding owing to a number of unforeseeable factors. This week's Cover Story discusses exactly that, providing you with essential tips to ace your next virtual interview.

Our product guides return, with an all-in-one PC list on Bytes and an SUV compilation on Shift - of course, within specific budgets. We also talk about some institutions in Bangladesh where you can learn foreign languages, as well as how to use the new podcasts feature on Twitter.

Until then. See you next week. Stay safe everyone.
