

ROZINA

The evergreen actress looked stunning in an orange-red sari, diamond necklaces, and a mid-level bun. What mostly stood out was her spectacular sunrise orange lipstick and pearl beads embedded meticulously into her locks.

SHAHIDUL ALAM SACHCHU

The actor looked dapper in retro shades, a purple blazer, and dark blue inners and jeans. Who would have thought retro would make such a big-time comeback on the red-carpet?

PEYA JANNATUL

The supermodel looked exquisite in an ivory white, Grecian gown, heavily embroidered with golden sequins at the neck and the sleeves. Peya Jannatul methodically paired her attire for the evening with a nude look, gel manicured nails, and glossy lipstick.

NADIA DORA

Dora was dressed in a full-length, velvet dress and nude toned stilettoes. What caught our attention mostly was her gorgeous silver anklets that were peeping out beneath the gown.

FS NAYEEM

The actor looked sharp in an all-black ensemble. When asked which brands he was wearing for the evening, Nayeem thanked Artisti, BD Express, and Gant Chelsea for the entire look.

RUKHSANA ALI HERA

Looking sharp in an all-black jumpsuit, the model definitely turned few heads amongst the crowd. What mostly pulled us towards her look were the silver and crystal combo jewellery that she was wearing for the evening.

REHAAN RASUL

In an old-style combination of blue and white with black shades, Rehaan Rasul rocked the evening in an all Taaga ensemble.

SAFA KABIR

With a halter neck blouse and powder blue sari, everyone wondered whose designer outfit Safa Kabir was wearing at the red-carpet event. The answer to that is Butterfly by Shagufta, her favourite go-to brand for any grand occasion.

SABNAM FARIA

Donning a traditional ash-toned jamdani with pink borders, the actress looked elegant in her wardrobe for the evening. What mostly caught our eyes was the stylish teep on her forehead.
