The advertisement is divided into three main sections. On the left, a woman in a long, flowing purple dress stands in a room with teal walls, looking into a large, ornate gold mirror. On the right, a woman in a pink dress sits on a black armchair. In the center, a large orange banner displays the text 'BERGER LUXURY Silk' in English and Bengali. To the right of the banner is a large white paint can with a purple label that reads 'BERGER LUXURY Silk' and 'Hygienic Coating'. The background is a warm, orange-toned wall with a floor lamp and a small table.
