SOS Children's Village celebrates 50th anniv

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

SOS Children's Villages Bangladesh, a non-profit social development organisation, pledged to continue their work to ensure care, love and security of a family for the orphaned and abandoned children in Bangladesh on the occasion of its 50th founding anniversary.

SOS Children's Village started its journey in Bangladesh under an agreement with the then Labour and Social Welfare Ministry on May 17, 1972. Marking the anniversary, a programme was organised at a city hotel on Friday.

Addressing the event as chief guest, Speaker Shirin Sharmin Chaudhury said, "Establishing a humane world for children requires government initiatives as well as private philanthropic organisations. I hope private institutions will come forward in this regard."

National Director of SOS Children's Villages Bangladesh Md Enamul Haque said apart from providing quality alternative care to parentless and vulnerable children, SOS also works to increase the capacity of families so that children do not get separated from their families due to poverty or other reasons.

At the event, Planning Minister MA Mannan awarded "SOS Children's Villages Bangladesh Community Champion Award" to nine prominent citizens of Bangladesh for their significant contribution to society.

The recipients are PHP Group Chairman Alhaj Sufi Mizanur Rahman, actor Ajmeri Haque Bandhan, philanthropist Begum Majeda Ali, microbiologist Senjuti Saha, AFDB President Mantasha Ahmed, MD of Ahmed Food Minhaj Ahmed, Selector of Bangladesh Cricket Team Kazi Habibul Bashar, Founder of Ritu Health and Wellbeing Foundation Sharmin Kabir, and Vice Chancellor of Rajshahi University Professor Golam Sabbir Sattar.

Another award, titled "Pride of SOS Children's Villages Bangladesh Award", were given to eight care leavers who grew up in SOS' alternative family-like care.
