The country's unused electricity is more than 40 percent now, so Bangladesh is increasing power import from India. After the ongoing projects, India's contribution in our power sector will jump to 16 percent from 8 percent. If the project of fuel importing through pipelines from India starts, India's contribution in the fuel sector will be over 20 percent. Bangladesh Petroleum Corporation would save $2-3 per barrel by importing through pipelines, but if the country would increase the refinery capacity, it could save over $11 per barrel.

“As per the UN convention, Bangladesh has rights to equitable and fair share of water of the whole river system. Barak river flows through 45,000 square kilometre area, within which there are six large and medium irrigation projects and six hydro-electric
